WINES AND LIQUORS AT WHEELOCK'S.

CONSTANTLY on hand the purest articles at reasonable prices. It is not necessary to pay an exorbitant price to get the best, if you go to a wholesale house. These goods were all bought with the gold, in bond, and consequently were shipped in the original packages. Many articles cannot, by law, be imported in less than 100 gallon packages, and small dealers cannot buy them in so large quantities, consequently if you want

Genuine Liquors

go to Wheelock's. The stock is complete, and any one wanting a pure article can depend on getting it there. The stock consists in part of Fine Old

Cognac and Rochelle Brandies,
HOLLAND GIN,
Superior Article of Old Tom Gin,
WEST INDIA RUM,
several kinds,
Fine Bourbon and Monongahela Whiskies,
RYE WHISKY, LOW PRICED, THAT IS PURE,
Pure Juice Wine, Sweet Sherry, Maderia, &c
CURRANT WINE
from one to eight years old,
GENUINE SCOTCH ALE, LONDON PORTER, BOSTON BOTTLED CIDER, FINE WINES AND LIQUORS,

of all kinds, some of which have been bottled in the store eight years, and in short everything in this line all for "Medical Purposes."

Also, just received, a fine lot of Fresh Peaches, Berries, Pine Apples, Jellies, Pickles, Mushrooms, Clams, Lobsters, Oysters, Sardines, Catsup, Sauces, French Mustard, Sweet Oil, &c.

All goods warranted the best quality and as low as anywhere in the west. no25dawtf

FURNITURE WAREHOUSE.

N. SWAGER,

WOULD call the attention of the people of Janesville, Rock and adjoining counties, to his increased facilities for manufacturing

PARLOR, CHAMBER AND COMMON FURNIRURE

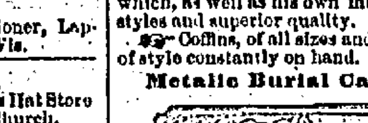

which he will sell at

Greatly Reduced Prices.

In addition to the articles manufactured by himself he keeps a large stock of Imported Furniture, which embraces everything needed for household use, and which, as well as his own manufacture, is of the latest styles and superior quality.

☞ Coffins, of all sizes and trimmed in every variety of style constantly on hand.

Metalic Burial Cases and Caskets.

I have just received a large assortment of these articles, of an improved style and perfectly air tight. As none have been kept in this city for the last three or four years, much inconvenience has been experienced in sending for them.

I invite an examination of all my stock, knowing that I can give satisfaction both in quality and price. Shop on Milwaukee street, second door above Central Bank, sign of the coffin. N. SWAGER.

HAIR JEWELRY, BRACELETS, NECKLACES, EAR DROPS, PINS, &c., &c., WIGS, TOUPEES, BANDEAUX, SWITCHES, ETC.

The following measures must be taken to insure a fit:

FOR WIGS.

1. The round of the head. 2. From the forehead to the neck. 3. From ear to ear. 4. From ear over the crown to ear.

FOR TOUPEES.

1. The round of the head. 2. From forehead to extent of baldness. 3. From ear to ear. 4. Across the bald place, over the crown.

Every Article Warranted Satisfactory.

It need be only added that Mr. Ohswaldt has been for a term of years manager of Bachelor's world renowned business in New York, and that he received at the late United States Fair the first and only premium, over all competitors from every part of the Union, as also from different other State and Mechanic fairs.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,
CASH CAPITAL OVER $1,900,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an Indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

DAILY GAZETTE.

From the Woonsocket (R. I.) Patriot.

MR. EDITOR:—Please publish the following lines. If they had been written for our little darling, they could not have been more appropriate. She used to sit at the nursery window for hours, and watch the robins building their nests in the tree close by; and many were her visits to the rosebuds in the yard, to see if they had unfolded.

Thus deftly strong is the harp of humanity, and so exquisitely tuned, that when one chord is struck, an echo is heard in thousands of hearts. A. B. R.

Woonsocket, January, 1862.

Over the Way.

Gone from her childish purity
Out from her golden day;
Fading away in a light so sweet,
Where the silver stars and the sunbeams meet,
Paving a path for her silent feet,
Over the silent way.

Over her bosom tenderly
The frail white hands are pressed;
The lashes lie on her cheeks so thin—
Where the softest blush of the rose hath been—
Shutting the blue of her eye within
The pure lids closed in rest.

Over the sweet brow lovingly
Twineth her sunny hair:
She was so fragile that Love sent down
From his heavenly gems that soft bright crown;
To shade her brow with its waves so brown,
Light as the dimpling air.

Gone to sleep with the tender smile
Froze on her silent lips
By the farewell kiss of her dewy breath,
Cold in the clasp of her angel Death—
Like the last fair bud of a fading wreath,
Whose bloom the white frost nips.

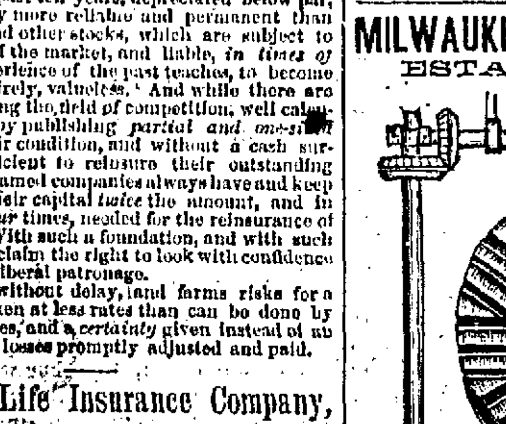

Robin—hushed in your downy bed
Over the swinging bough—
Do you miss her voice from your glad duet,
When the dew in the heart of the rose is set,
Till its velvet lips with the essence wet,
In orient crimson glow?

Rosebud under your shady leaf,
Hid from the sunny day,
Do you miss her glance of the eye so bright,
Whose blue was heaven in your timid sight?
It is beaming now in a world of light,
Over the stary way.

Hearts, where the darling's head hath lain,
Held by love's shining ray—
Do you know that the touch of her gentle hand
Doth brighten the harp in the unknown land?
O, she waits for us with the angel band,
Over the starry way.

FUTURE HOUSEKEEPERS.—We sometimes catch ourselves wondering how many of the young ladies whom we meet with are to perform the part of housekeepers, when the young men who now eye them so admiringly, have persuaded them to become their wives? We listen to those young ladies of whom we speak, and hear them not only acknowledging, but boasting of their ignorance of all household duties, as if nothing would so lower them in the estimation of their friends, as the confession of an ability to bake bread and pies, or cook a piece of meat, or a disposition to engage in any useful employment. Speaking from our own youthful recollections, we are free to say that taper fingers and lily hands are very pretty to look at with a young man's eyes, and sometimes we have known the artless innocence of practical knowledge displayed by a young Miss to appear rather interesting than otherwise. But we have lived long enough to learn that life is full of rugged experience, and that the most loving, romantic and delicate people, must live on cooked or otherwise prepared food, and in homes kept clean and tidy by industrious hands. And for all the practical purposes of married life, it is generally found that for a husband to sit and gaze at a wife's taper fingers and lily hands, or for a wife to sit and be looked at, and admired, does not make the pot boil, or put the smallest piece of food therein.—Anonymous.

WHEELER & WILSON'S SEWING MACHINES

WITH

New Improvements, at Reduced Prices

THE Wheeler & Wilson Manufacturing Company having gained all their suits at law, with infringing manufacturers of Sewing Machines, propose that the public shall be benefitted thereby, and have accordingly reduced the

PRICES OF THEIR SEWING MACHINES.

After this date they will be sold at rates that will pay a fair profit on the cost of manufacture, capital invested, and expense of making sales; such prices as will enable them to make first class machines, and, as heretofore, guarantee them in every particular.

SINGER & CO.'S

STANDARD MACHINES',

Well known to be the best for

Manufacturing Purposes:

No. 1, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $90,

Reduced to $70.

No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,

Reduced to $75.

Singer's Letter A Machine,

IS the best Machine in the word for Family Sewing and Light manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented,

FIFTY DOLLARS.

The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.

Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy

in Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.

We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.

Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the

GENUINE ARTICLE.

In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.

☞ Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.

☞ All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of

I. M. SINGER & CO.'S GAZETTE,

which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two fold view of benefitting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.

The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.

FURNITURE WAREHOUSE

N. SWAGER,

WOULD call the attention of the people of Janesville, Rock and adjoining counties, to his increased facilities for manufacturing

PARLOR, CHAMBER AND COMMON FURNITURE

which he will sell at

Greatly Reduced Prices.

In addition to the articles manufactured by himself he keeps a large stock of Imported Furniture, which embraces everything needed for household use, and which, as well as his own manufacture, is of the latest styles and superior quality.

☞ Coffins, of all sizes and trimmed in every variety of style constantly on hand.

Metalic Burial Cases and Caskets.

I have just received a large assortment of these articles, of an improved style and perfectly air tight. As none have been kept in this city for the last three or four years, much inconvenience has been experienced in sending for them.

I invite an examination of all my stock, knowing that I can give satisfaction both in quality and price. Shop on Milwaukee street, second door above Central Bank, sign of the coffin. N. SWAGER.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,
CASH CAPITAL OVER $1,900,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

DAILY GAZETTE.

From the Woonsocket (R. I.) Patriot.

MR. EDITOR:—Please publish the following lines. If they had been written for our little darling, they could not have been more appropriate. She used to sit at the nursery window for hours, and watch the robins building their nests in the tree close by; and many were her visits to the rosebuds in the yard, to see if they had unfolded.

Thus deftly strong is the harp of humanity, and so exquisitely tuned, that when one chord is struck, an echo is heard in thousands of hearts. A. B. R.
Woonsocket, January, 1862.

Over the Way.

Gone from her childish purity
Out from her golden day;
Fading away in a light so sweet,
Where the silver stars and the sunbeams meet,
Paving a path for her silent feet,
Over the silent way.

Over her bosom tenderly
The pearl white hands are pressed;
The lashes lie on her cheeks so thin—
Where the softest blush of the rose hath been—
Shutting the blue of her eye within
The pure lids closed in rest.

Over the sweet brow lovingly
Twineth her sunny hair;
She was so fragile that Love sent down
From his heavenly gems that soft bright crown,
To shade her brow with its waves so brown,
Light as the dimpling air.

Gone to sleep with the tender smile
Froze on her silent lips
By the farewell kiss of her dewy breath,
Cold in the clasp of her angel Death—
Like the last fair bud of a fading wreath,
Whose bloom the white frost nips.

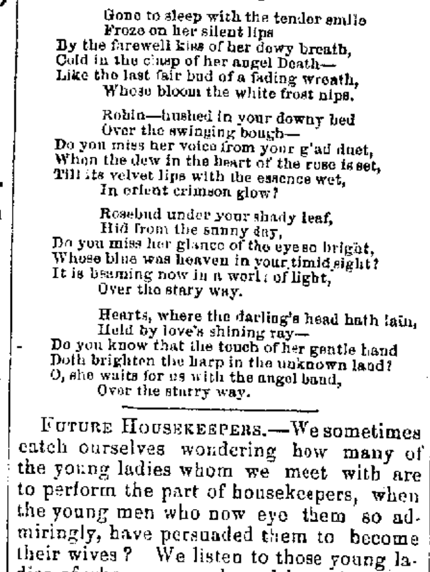

Robin—hushed in your downy bed
Over the swinging bough—
Do you miss her voice from your glad duet,
When the dew in the heart of the rose is set,
Till its velvet lips with the essence wet,
In orient crimson glow?

Rosebud under your shady leaf,
Hid from the sunny day,
Do you miss her glance of the eye so bright,
Whose blue was heaven in your timid sight?
It is beaming now in a world of light,
Over the stary way.

Hearts, where the darling's head hath lain,
Held by love's shining ray—
Do you know that the touch of her gentle hand
Doth brighten the harp in the unknown land?
O, she waits for us with the angel band,
Over the starry way.

FUTURE HOUSEKEEPERS.—We sometimes catch ourselves wondering how many of the young ladies whom we meet with are to perform the part of housekeepers, when the young men who now eye them so admiringly, have persuaded them to become their wives? We listen to those young ladies of whom we speak, and hear them not only acknowledging, but boasting of their ignorance of all household duties, as if nothing would so lower them in the estimation of their friends, as the confession of an ability to bake bread and pies, or cook a piece of meat, or a disposition to engage in any useful employment. Speaking from our own youthful recollections, we are free to say that taper fingers and lily hands are very pretty to look at with a young man's eyes, and sometimes we have known the artless innocence of practical knowledge displayed by a young Miss to appear rather interesting than otherwise. But we have lived long enough to learn that life is full of rugged experience, and that the most loving, romantic and delicate people, must live on cooked or otherwise prepared food, and in homes kept clean and tidy by industrious hands. And for all the practical purposes of married life, it is generally found that for a husband to sit and gaze at a wife's taper fingers and lily hands, or for a wife to sit and be looked at, and admired, does not make the pot boil, or put the smallest piece of food therein.—Anonymous.

GREAT REDUCTION

SINGER & CO.'S

STANDARD MACHINES,

Well known to be the best for

Manufacturing Purposes:

No. 1, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $90,

Reduced to $70.

No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,

Reduced to $75.

Singer's Letter A Machine,

IS the best Machine in the word for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented,

FIFTY DOLLARS.

The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.

Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy

in Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.

We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.

Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the

GENUINE ARTICLE.

In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.

☞ Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.

☞ All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of

I. M. SINGER & CO.'S GAZETTE,

which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two fold view of benefitting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.

The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.

The Victory at Fort Donelson.

The victory at Fort Donelson has excited the liveliest satisfaction and enthusiasm throughout the country. It is looked upon as the turning point in the war. Henceforward the rebellion is to decline. Its effect upon the enemy must be disheartening in the extreme, coupled with their recent misfortunes in Kentucky, Missouri and North Carolina. They must soon debate the question among themselves of a retrograde movement from Manassas to the southwest. It is not impossible that this is now going on, in connection with the withdrawal of their troops from the country immediately bordering on the Mississippi.—They must be driven to the interior gulf states, if our victory is followed up, and probably their next most serious stand will be made at Nashville, which is favorably situated for defence, as well as receiving supplies by railroad. Their plan if driven from the border states entirely, will lead them to delay the advance of the Union forces into the gulf states until warm weather, when our troops will be withdrawn on account of the climate. That the rebels will be conquered by one or two battles is not probable.

The effect of the victory at Fort Donelson will also be felt in Europe, and will induce the plotters against this government, to pause in their plans and calculations.—There will be a solemn time in Lord Palmerston's cabinet. What if these federal victories be followed up by still greater ones? What if the grand army of the Union, flushed by success, and indignant at the conduct of England, should "right about face" and march northward to the Queen's dominions? These questions may suggest a change of policy towards us, and baffle the schemes of the secessionists in Europe, who were, at last accounts, gaining ground. The heroic conduct of our brave troops at Fort Donelson, and their magnificent victory, will influence for good the prospects of their country in every cabinet in the civilized world.

The Cost of a Cavalry Regiment.

The expensiveness of this branch of the service has been a frequent subject of comment. To give some idea of it we give below some of the statistics of the 9th Illinois cavalry, which has just left Chicago for St. Louis.

This regiment numbers 1,035 men and 1,175 horses.

The camp equipage consists of 280 excellent tents, costing about $29,000. The arms, which have not yet been procured, will consist, for each man, of one Colt's revolver, one Sharp's carbine, and one regulation sabre, the aggregate costing in the neighborhood of $75,000. Of horse equipments there have been purchased 1,148, costing $38 each, in all $43,320. The clothing cost $50,000. During their stay in camp the monthly bills for forage and food have been $7,500; for rations, $159.10 per day, or $4,175 per month—making a total of $12,000 for subsistence alone.—The horses cost $129,250. The following is the approximate cost of the regiment:

Tents,	$29,000
Arms,	75,000
Horses,	129,250
Horse equipments,	43,320
Clothing,	50,000
Total,	$326,570

To this may be added three months' pay and subsistence while recruiting, as follows:

Subsistence,	$12,000
Three months' pay of privates and non-commissioned officers,	37,340
Three months' pay of staff, field and commissioned officers,	22,500
Total,	$71,840

If to this be added the cost of transporting the regiment to the seat of war, for which $12,000 would be a low estimate, it will foot up a grand total, as follows:

Outfit,	$326,570
Three month's pay and subsistence,	71,840
Transportation,	12,000
Grand total,	$410,410

Hereafter it may be safely estimated that to equip a regiment of cavalry and bring it into the field will cost at least half a million of dollars!—and an addition of twenty-five thousand dollars for every month they are kept in the field, independent of casualties.

A Poor Piece of Property.—When Floyd stole himself out of Fort Donnelson he purloined the meanest piece of property in this or any other country.

☞ It is reported in the Chicago Journal, yesterday, on the authority of a private dispatch, that Gen. Grant was severely but not fatally wounded, in the battle at Fort Donelson.

Going to Leave.—It is said that as soon as arrangements can be made for the payment of the whole or a part of the arrearages due the troops in this state, they will be sent to Cairo, under the requisition of Gen. Halleck. All the infantry regiments are armed, though all are not filled to the minimum number.

From the Chicago Times.

The Great Victory on the Cumberland.

FORT DONELSON.

Fort Donelson is an earth-work, and was constructed last summer, at the same time as Fort Henry, but is a much stronger fortification than the latter. It is situated near Dover, and on the bluffy bank of the Cumberland, where the river makes an obtuse angle. The fort is surrounded by high and steep hills, heavily wooded, and its strength is materially aided by two redoubts, trenches and rifle pits. It was recently armed with twenty heavy guns, which are ranged in two tiers on parapets. The upper tier of guns would not be effective if the river was low, as they could not be discharged at any object nearly under them without danger of being dismounted from their carriages. As the Cumberland, however, is high and rising, these guns may be effectively used against our gun boats.

A railroad, which communicates with Memphis, Clarksville, Nashville, Russellville and Bowling Green, passss but a few miles south of the fort. Some seven or eight important post-roads intersect near the fort. The position is important as controlling the river as far up as Clarksville, and, in conjunction with Fort Henry and Tennessee bridge, as breaking off from the rebels some twenty miles of railroad communication.

From the nearest point [illegible] on the Memphis railroad, the distance to Clarksville is thirty miles. The road crosses the Cumberland river here, and strong defensive works have been constructed.

To Nashville, the distance by rail from Fort Donelson is ninety-one miles, and to Bowling Green, ninety-four miles. To Memphis, the distance is 169 miles, but railroad communication has been cut off by the destruction of a portion of the railroad bridge across the Tennessee, sixteen miles above Fort Henry.

We fear the facility with which Fort Donelson may be reinforced is not sufficiently appreciated by those who looked for its immediate surrender. At Russelville, Logan county, Kentucky, about sixty miles from the fort, Generals Buckner and Floyd had their headquarters previous to the attack on Fort Henry, with ten or fifteen thousand rebel troops. Buckner has either gone to East Tennessee, to meet Thomas, or to Donelson. Some of the accounts from the fort state with much positiveness he is there.

Bowling Green was yesterday occupied by the federal troops under Gen. Mitchell. It has been ascertained that, as early as the 1st instant, large bodies of rebel troops were sent away from Bowling Green, its evacuation having been determined on at that time. On Monday last the remainder of their forces, under Gen. Hardee, hastily left the place, after dismantling the fortifications on which so much labor had been bestowed. The artillery at Bowling Green was sent south by rail, either to Nashville, Clarksville or Fort Donelson,—naturally to the latter place we should think. By river the fort can be reinforced from Clarksville or Nashville.

But of course their facilities for reinforcement will not avail the garrison of Fort Donelson if, as our telegrams state, they are completely cut off from the railroad and river. An attempt to throw reinforcements into the fort from either would be met and frustrated by Gen. Grant and the gunboats.

FEDERAL REINFORCEMENTS.

While the confederates possess great advantages in placing troops in the vicinity of Fort Donelson, the federal authorities [illegible] resources, and are using them. Sixty steamboats [illegible] chartered at Cincinnati, to carry troops up the Cumberland.

Assistant Secretary of War Scott has been in the west for some time past, said to be making arrangements for railroad transportation. It has been announced that he has secured the exclusive use of the railroad from Pittsburgh to Cincinnati for six days, with the view of transporting 50,000 troops from Washington into Tennessee. From Pittsburgh to Washington railroad transportation is under government control, whenever required, for its exclusive use.

THE CUMBERLAND RIVER.

The capture of Fort Donelson will give us a very strong hold on the Cumberland, and become a base for operations further on, extending in time to Nashville, the capital of Tennessee.

The Cumberland river rises in the Cumberland Mountains, near the boundary between Virginia and Kentucky, and, pursuing a westerly or southwesterly course, enters the state of Tennessee. After an extensive sweep to the south it turns northwestwardly and northerly, and enters and crosses Kentucky, entering the Ohio 11½ miles east of the mouth of the Tennessee river and 59 miles above the mouth of the Ohio. The entire length of the river is about 600 miles, and it drains a territory of 17,000 square miles. It is navigable for large steamboats and vessels to Nashville, 203 miles from the mouth, and for boats of 15 tons 300 miles further. At certain seasons of high water, vessels of 400 tons can descend the river 400 miles to the Ohio, and for half its length boats may navigate it at all seasons. It is the second river in size which enters the Ohio, being inferior only to the Tennessee. Below Nashville, the river is deep and narrow. There are on the borders of the Cumberland nineteen furnaces, nine forges, and two rolling mills, producing annually 44,500 tons of iron, valued at $1,673,000.

THE CITY OF NASHVILLE.

In a short time, if our armies progress in the west as energetically as they have done of late, Nashville will become a place of interest as connected with our movements up the Cumberland. It is connected with Bowling Green by railroad. Nashville is situated on the left or the west bank of the Cumberland river, some two hundred miles by the course of the stream from its mouth; 280 miles northeast of Memphis; 206 miles southwest of Lexington in Kentucky, and 684 miles from Washington city.

The population of Nashville at the present time is about 26,000.

THE INVESTMENT OF THE FORT.

Gen. Grant's command left Fort Henry on Wednesday, and the greater portion was encamped in front of the enemy at Fort Donelson before dark on the same evening. The column was six miles long, and surrounded the enemy entirely, including the town of Dover. The pickets of the enemy were driven in on Wednesday night.

The gunboat Carondolet was the only one of the fleet that reached the vicinity of the fort on Wednesday. She engaged the batteries the next day, previous to the arrival of the remainder of the squadron under Com. Foote.

THE BOMBARDMENT OF THE FORT ON THURSDAY.

Camp near Fort Donelson, Feb. 13.

Fort Donelson is invested by our troops. Our lines are formed from right to left, from north to south, nearly surrounding the fort. Heavy cannonading and skirmishing have been going on on since 7½ o'clock A. M. The cannonading was discontinued at 8 P. M.

The fight continued with more or less vigor all day, but with little progress, as the enemy is completely intrenched on all sides by formidable works, located on high and steep ridges, thickly covered with timber and underbrush. The work of dislodging them is most formidable. Our lines completely surround them, however, and we have them to work upon at our leisure. It is evident that the rebels have determined to make a desperate stand. They have concentrated a force here which is fully equal, if not greater than our own.

The enemy has been receiving reinforcements all day from Bowling Green via Nashville.

The operations to-day have mostly consisted in cannonading at intervals between the two forces, and frequent skirmishing.

Our sharpshooters descend into the ravines, and climb up the ridge upon which the enemy is located, and pop away whenever one shows himself. The enemy replies in the same way.

Birge's sharpshooters have distinguished themselves in this way. Company G, Capt. L. L. B. Cutler, got within seventy-five yards of one rebel battery, and completely silenced it during nearly the whole afternoon. The moment a gunner advanced to man any of the pieces, he was sure to be shot dead in his tracks.

A desperate advance was made on a rebel redoubt at one o'clock, by the seventeenth and forty-ninth Illinois, under Col. Morrison, of the last named regiment. They made two gallant charges, penetrating up close to the breastworks, but were obliged in both instances to fall back under a heavy cross-fire of artillery and infantry. Both regiments suffered severely.

Close up to the ramparts great quantities of brush wood were piled up before the breastworks, which it was impossible to penetrate.

Captain [illegible] of the forty-ninth Illinois, was killed. The adjutant of the seventeenth Illinois was slightly wounded in the hand, while taking a gallant part. Altogether the loss of the two regiments will amount to 100 killed and wounded.

The twenty-fifth Indiana suffered somewhat severely in a sally of the enemy upon them from the fort, but rallied promptly and chased them back.

Altogether, our loss to-day is about 250 in killed and wounded. Capt. Mendell, of the seventh Illinois, was killed early in the morning.

A heavy rain set in, which will have a severe effect upon our men to-night, lying out, as they necessarily must, without tents, and, in many instances in such positions as to render even fires impossible. The soldiers are, however, courageous and firm.

The Carondolet fought from nine o'clock Thursday morning until 12, when a 128-pounder, sent by the rebels, passed through her wood-work, wounding seven of her crew with splinters. She withdrew and placed the wounded on the transport Alps, and returned to continue the engagement. The Alps, coming down with the wounded, met Commodore Foote 30 miles below Fort Donelson, with the gunboats St. Louis, Louisville, Pittsburgh, Conestoga and Tyler. She towed the St. Louis and Pittsburgh to within 25 miles of Fort Donelson, and left them Friday morning at three o'clock.

The Carondolet opened the fire at some distance from the fort. The enemy immediately replied, and the Carondolet was advancing when a battery of five pieces opened upon her from the opposite side of the river. Two of the enemy's guns were dismounted, and one burst.

The fort is surrounded with high and steep hills, heavily wooded. It was protected by two redoubts, trenches and rifle pits.

The rebels gave battle from their entrenchments outside the fort. They were driven in after a severe battle and a considerable loss of life on both sides.

In Camp near Fort Donelson, Feb. 14.

Last night was very severe on our troops, rain having set in which was turned to snow. It is freezing to-day and old citizens [illegible] such cold weather in this latitude.

The more I see of the fort the more convinced am I it cannot be reduced without a terrible battle. Its rear seems almost impregnable. The outer works and bastions of the fort are located on ridges 150 to 250 feet high, covered with dense timber and undergrowth.

Upon a similar range of hills outside them, our army is drawn up in line of battle, completely encircling the enemy from the Cumberland south of the fort to the backwater of a stream which flanks the fort on the north.

Gen. Oglesby, who has the extreme right, last night pushed forward his brigade to the Cumberland, and has planted a battery commanding the river, which will effectually prevent the arrival of any more reinforcements.

In fact, we have them completely surrounded, and can complete the job at our leisure. A formidable attempt was made last night to take Taylor's battery by the enemy, who approached under cover of darkness, but they were gallantly repulsed by the 20th Illinois.

Considerable skirmishing occurred during the night, both forces endeavoring, in the darkness, to crowd in upon the other. This morning it was discovered that the enemy had placed logs on top of their breastworks, leaving little space for them to shoot through, and much diminishing their risks from the unerring aim of our sharpshooters.

The casualities among our artillery thus far was very small. The loss of the enemy as far as can be ascertained is considerable.

Yesterday afternoon, after the storming party had retired, and when the rebels were thickly crowded together, to repel the assault, Capt. Taylor opened on them with shell with terrible effect. His practice was superb, creating the greatest consternation in their ranks, and causing them to take refuge in their entrenchments.

The gunboat assault was terrific, exceeding even the Fort Henry bombardment. It lasted about an hour and a half.

The enemy has fronting on the river two batteries, the lower one of nine, and the upper four guns, besides a 10-inch columbiad.

The wooden gunboats, Tyler and Conestoga were engaged in the fight.

Commodore Foote pronounces the engagement the hottest he ever witnessed.

Seven of the nine guns in the lower tier of the enemy's battery had been silenced, and everything was apparently progressing favorably, when the rudder-chain of the Carondolet was severed.

The Pittsburg was damaged in the wheel so as to be unable to stem the current, and the pilot-house was knocked away, killing the pilot and slightly wounding several others, among them Com. Foote.

The fleet then were obliged to retire.

One of our shells struck immediately under one of the enemy's guns, throwing the gun and bodies of the gunners high in the air.

A great number of dead and wounded could be seen carried up the hill.

Commodore Foote's wounds are slight.

The St. Louis was struck 57 times, the Louisville 35, the Pittsburg 21 and the Carondolet 26.

Eastern Kentucky.—Col. Garfield, commanding the federal forces in Eastern Kentucky, was at last accounts—February 10—making an advance up the Big Sandy river to Piketon, with his whole brigade. He is now there, with a fighting force of between three and four thousand. The water in the river is lowering, so that difficulty will be experienced in getting provisions up. No rebels are reported this side of Pound Gap.

Special dispatch to the St. Louis Democrat.

SPRINGFIELD, Feb. 16.

According to latest advices the federal army was vigorously in pursuit of the rebels.

Price's army was on Craney creek, 29 miles from here, on Friday evening, and our forces five miles in the rear, preparing to make an early start in pursuit, next morning. Price had placed his train in advance. About 100 wagons containing supplies for him were brought into this place from Forsyth, only a few hours before his retreat. Rebel sympathisers here claim that Price will be reinforced by 12 or 15 regiments from Bentonville, under Gen. Van Dorn, but Gen. Sigel, who was advancing on the rebel column, by a different route than that pursued by Gen. Curtis, may strike a blow on their flank, and upset Price's calculations.

Four rebel officers and thirteen privates, fell into our hands on Friday, and are now here. The officers are the notorious Col. Freeman, Maj. Berry, aid-de-camp to Gen. McBride, Capt. Dickenson, chief engineer, and Capt. Downell, quarter master.

A pony express with relay posts has been established by Capt. Baldwin, between Rolla and this point.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 17.

Fort Donelson surrendered at 9 o'clock yesterday morning to the land forces. The gunboats were present at the time. An immense amount of war material is among the trophies of the victory. Floyd skulked away the night before the surrender. The gunboat Carondolet, Capt. Walker, arrived at Cairo with the news. A large number of our wounded have been brought to the Paducah and Cairo hospitals.

This city is wild with excitement and joy. The news was read at the Union Merchants' Exchange, creating the most intense enthsiasm. The "Star Spangled Banner," "Flag of Our Union," and "Red White and Blue," were sung by all present, after which they adjourned and marched to the army headquarters, 12,000 or 15,000 strong, where three rousing cheers were given for Halleck, Foote and Grant.

Halleck appeared at the window and thanked the people for their hearty demonstration and said:—"I promised when I came here that with your aid I would drive the enemies of our flag from your state.—This has been done, and they are virtually out of Kentucky and will soon be out of Tennessee."

More cheers were given for the Union, the "Star Spangled Banner" repeated, and the crowd dispersed.

Judge Holt wept for joy when he heard the news. Many stores are closed, and the city is being decorated with flags, and evidences of great joy are everywhere manifested.

Gov. Yates, Secretary Hatch, Auditor Dubois, of Illinois, left for Fort Donelson this morning, to look after the wounded Illinois troops.

A requisition has been made for all steamboats in this vicinity to be held in readiness for the transportation of troops and government stores.

BOSTON, Feb. 17.

The news of the capture of Fort Donelson created a perfect furore of patriotic jubilation in Boston, to-day. There has never been so much joy manifested.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.

Chief Justice Taney this morning delivered the opinion in the case of Gordon, the slave trader, denying the motion made by Judge Dean for a writ of prohibition to prevent his execution, on the ground of a want of power in the court to review proceedings in criminal proceedings in criminal cases to restrain action of a ministerial officer. The application was based on an irregularity of the circuit court of New York.

PITTSBURG, Feb. 17.

News of the capture of Fort Donelson was received here with intense delight.—Business during the day was partially suspended; bells rung, and flags were displayed at various business houses and public buildings. To-night the post office, custom house, newspaper offices and other buildings will be illuminated; bonfires and other demonstrations.

DETROIT, Feb. 17.

The news of the victory at Ft. Donelson caused indescribable joy here. One hundred guns were fired on the receipt of the news. Buildings were illuminated; the fire department, military and citizens were out in grand parade, with banners, torches and rockets to celebrate the great event.

CHICAGO, Feb. 17.

The news of the surrender of Fort Donelson, received this A. M., created the wildest enthusiasm. Business of all kinds was temporarily suspended. The board of trade adjourned at an early hour. People claim it as a victory of Illinois, the troops there being 25 Illinois infantry regiments, 6 Iowa and 4 Indiana; 4 regiments Illinois cavalry and 6 companies of Missouri artillery.

CHICAGO, Feb. 17.

Special to the Times, Fort Donelson, 16th.—Fort Donelson surrendered at daylight this morning, unconditionally. We have generals Buckner, Johnston and Bushrod, and 16,000 prisoners, with three thousand horses. Pillow and Floyd with their brigades, ran away on steamers without letting Buckner know their intention.

Gen. Smith led the charge on the lower end of the works, and was the first inside fortifications. The Fort Henry runaways were bagged. The prisoners are being loaded on steamers for Cairo. Our loss is heavy, probably 400 killed and 800 wounded. We lost a large per centage. Among them are Lieut. Cols. Erwin of 20th Illinois, and White of the 40th; Cols. John A. Logan, Lawler and Ransom are wounded. Major Post, 8th Illinois, with 200 privates, are prisoners, gone to Nashville, having been taken prisoners the night before the surrender. The enemy's loss is heavy, but not so large as ours, as they fought behind entrenchments. We should have taken them by storm Saturday if our ammunition had not given out in the night. McClernand's division, and Oglesby's and McArthur's brigades suffered terribly.—They were composed of the 8th, 9th, 11th, 18th, 20th, 29th, 30th, 31st, 45th, 48th, 49th, Illinois regiments.

Gen. Lew Wallace, with the 11th Indiana, 8th Missouri, and the same Ohio regiments, participated. Taylor's, McAlister's Dresser's and Schwartz's battery were in the fight from the commencement. The enemy turned our right for nearly half an hour but our ground was more than regained. Lauman's brigade of Smith's division was the first in the lower end of the enemys works, which were carried by charge of bayonets. Nine-tenths of the rebels were pitted against our right.

The works outside of the fort extended five miles along our lines. The rebels lost 48 howitzers, 17 heavy guns, 20,000 stand of arms, besides a large quantity of commissary stores. They are completely demoralized, and have no confidence in their leaders as they charge Pillow and Floyd with deserting them. Our troops from the moment of the investment of the fort on Wednesday lay on their arms night and day, half the time without provision, and all the time without tents; a portion of the time in heavy rains.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.

The House committee on contracts have been discharged from the further consideration of quarter master Van Vliet's advertisement for horses. The committee say the shortness of the notice for bids was owing to a pressing necessity.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 17.

Union men are overflowing with joy. The news is nowhere more acceptable than to them. Secesh is overwhelmed with this Waterloo defeat.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DESPATCHES.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.

Tribune's correspondence.—The committee of ways and means, in a protracted session this morning, debated and voted upon the several amendments made by the senate to the 1st and 2d sections of the legal tender bill. Messrs. Corning, Morrill, Horton and Stratton voted throughout to concur in all the changes of principle. Messrs. Stevens, Sheldon, Hooper and Maynard adhered to all the distinctive features of the bill as passed by the house. The vote thus standing four to four; these amendments of the senate were not concurred in, which makes the issue of new notes $100,000,000 instead of $150,000,000, which includes the $50,000,000 authorized July 17th requiring the interest on bonds and notes to be paid in coin, make the 20 year bonds redeemable after five years, authorize the conversion of notes, in sums not less than 100 dollars, into 7 3-10 bonds, and funded at 6 per cent, redeemable after five years, and payable in 20 years, instead of redeemable after 20 years as the claimants directed, and authorize the throwing the bonds on the market for what they will fetch.

Numerous letters were read to the committee by Mr. Stevens, advising the passage of the legal tender bill without the specie interest clause, and a resolution to that effect from the chambers of commerce in Louisville, St. Louis, Chicago, Cincinnati and Milwaukee.

Mr. Washburn, just arrived from Illinois, represented the demand for the bill as universal and imperative.

It is reported to-night, upon the authority of a telegram from Gen. Banks, that Mr. Faulkner has, within a day or two, made a speech at Martinsburg, in which he expressed the opinion that the rebellion was a failure, and advised his hearers to make the best terms possible for themselves with the United States.

The house military committee are considering a bill to enlarge the Michigan and Chicago canal to the capacity for ships.—It heard, to-day, a delegation from Illinois, and examined their plans for the improvement, including the deepening of the Illinois river to the Mississippi, through which the canal and river pass. They have agreed to surrender their property and jurisdiction to the government for a while, and receive the tolls in payment for the interest on the investment. Mr. Blair, chairman, has been authorized to report a bill for the week.

Six hundred and sixty sailors, volunteers from Massachusetts and Maine regiments, have started for Cairo, to-day, to man the eight iron clad gunboats, which have been waiting for them more than two weeks.—Every sea-faring man in the regiments from whom these were detailed was anxious to be one of them.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

CHICAGO, Feb. 18.

Tribune's special says that the position of the ground occupied by our troops in the attack on Fort Donelson was such that not more than one regiment could operate at the same time, while the rebels could bring their whole force to bear against us. The first regiment to receive the rebels was the 18th, which fought with desperate courage until their ammunition was exhausted, when they were forced to retire, and were replaced by the 8th. They, too, were driven back, after firing the last round. Meanwhile, other regiments were lending such feeble aid as their position would admit. Gen. Wallace was then ordered to reinforce McClernand, and sent two brigades from the center.

The 31st Illinois, Col. Logan, fought like veterans, defending Schwartz's battery under the most galling fire, until every horse at the battery was killed, together with all the officers who had charge of the guns, as well as the lieutenant colonel, acting major, seven captains, and a number of the lieutenants of the 31st had been killed, and the colonel wounded. Capt. McCook, who was left in command, drew off what was left of the regiment, not, however until the last round was exhausted, and they had driven the rebels before them. The second brigade then came up and took the place from which they had retired, and fought desperately, losing a great number killed, but with the assistance of a portion of Col. Wallace's division, and the 49th and 59th Ohio, drove the rebels back to their entrenchments, gaining a portion of the ground lost. The object of the rebels evidently was to cut their way through our troops.

CAIRO, Feb. 17.

The steamer Memphis arrived from Fort Donnelson this evening, bringing a Mississippi regiment prisoners, & 50 or 60 wounded soldiers, who were left at Mound City. Eight or nine other boats are on the way with rebel prisoners.

The rebels who escaped are supposed to have gone to Nashville, where, or at Clarkvill, it is supposed the confederates will attempt to make another stand.

This evening a great light was seen for several hours in the direction of Clarksville, and it is supposed the rebels have either burned the town or their gunboats in the river, to prevent them falling into our hands.

Rebel officers admit that if we take Nashville, the rebellion in Tennessee is gone up.

The prisoners will probably be sent to Camp Douglas, Chicago.

NEW YORK, Feb. 18.

The Edinburg, Liverpool midnight 3d, Queenstown night of the 4th, arrived at noon to-day. Her advices are via Liverpool one day later, but by way of Queenstown they are two days later.

The rebel steamer Nashville left Southampton on the third inst. She passed the federal gunboat Tuscorora, off Cowes, where the latter was anchored. The Tuscorora steamed up to start in chase of the Nashville, but the frigate Shannon was alongside to prevent her departure for 24 hours. The last seen of the Nashville she was steaming down the channel with all speed.

CLEVELAND, Feb. 8.

Firing of cannon all day, yesterday, bonfires and general rejoicing all last night, in honor of the taking of Fort Donelson.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 18.

The Republican's Fort Donelson correspondent gives the following account of the fighting on Saturday: Yesterday morning, just at daylight, a heavy sortie was made by the garrison from the left portion of their works. This attack was made upon the extreme right wing of the Union army, where it was weakest, being a part of Gen. McClernand's division, under Col. Ogelsby, consisting of his brigade, which was stationed there; also Schwartz's and McAllister's batteries. This was a point upon a ridge leading into the right redoubt, and was situated just above the main fort. During the night the enemy could be heard busily at work, but at what it was impossible to tell, as the thickets and woods encompassed the Union troops on every side, rendering the view in any direction almost impossible.

At daylight a large body of the enemy suddenly appeared on the extreme right wing of Col. Ogelsby's command, and opened a terrible fire with cannon from their redoubts, playing at the same time upon our force from guns placed in position on the night previous.

The camp of the 28th and 31st Indiana was most exposed, and the whole brigade was at once formed into line as follows:—

The 18th Illinois held the extreme right, the 8th Illinois next, 30th Illinois next, then the 29th Illinois supporting the right of Capt. Schwartz's battery, and the 31st Illinois defending the artillery on the left.

From the firing of the first gun until 9 o'clock, the battle raged unrelentingly and with fearful force on both sides. Again and again our troops drove the enemy back but they were often reinforced, while our troops had, owing to the extended lines of the army, and also their positions on the extreme right, to fight unassisted.

No more gallant fighting took place than that of these Union troops. Exposed to the terrible firing of treble their numbers they stood their ground until, in some regiments, every officer was killed or wounded. At last and reluctantly, regiment by regiment, they slowly fell back, leaving Schwartz's battery and three of McAllister's guns in the rebel's hands. Retiring a few hundred yards they again made a stand and Gen. Smith arrived with reinforcements, and at once drove the enemy again into their works.

In the first of the battle was also General Wallace's brigade, the 12th, 11th 17th, and 48th; also Col. McArthur's brigade, all of which troops suffered severely. Opposed to them were 12,000 rebels, supported by guns placed carefully in position.

General Grant having command of a division, drove the enemy back with reinforcements and gained the lost ground, at once ordered an advance by Gen. Smith on the left. Charging under a hot fire up the steep hill, on which was the outer redoubt, our troops gained the high breast works, and with hardly a pause went over them planting the stars and stripes over the walls under a most galling fire. They formed and charged and drove the rebels back, until they fell into a new position behind some batteries. When evening came the union troops had been victorious at every point, having gained back the ground lost in the morning and got within a part of the enemy's works. Our troops held their position during that night, repelling repeated assaults.

The scene within the captured fort, after the surrender showed how terribly the rebel garrison had suffered. Everywhere were lying fragments of shells and round shot, half buried in the earth, tents were torn in pieces, gun carriages broken, and blood scattered around. In the left redoubt, where the assault had taken place, the dead bodies lay thickly, and abundant evidence of the stern resistance and gallant attack was visible.

On the extreme right, half a mile distant, where the desperate sortie was made by the garrison, similar scenes were visible. The gallantry of the Union troops has been well and severely tested, and they have proved more than equal to the task before them.

As the fleet approached the fort this morning a salute was fired and loud cheers went up when the American flags were visible. No officer in the army had an idea of Fort Donelson's defences until they had been gained and examined. Several regiments, when out of ammunition, rushed forward, and although exposed to the full fire of the rebel artillery, gallantly drove their foes back with the bayonet and captured their guns. The following are the names of some of the rebel officers captured: Cols. Ganett, Vorhies, Forrest, Brown and Abernati.

The Victory at Fort Donelson.

The victory at Fort Donelson has excited the liveliest satisfaction and enthusiasm throughout the country. It is looked upon as the turning point in the war. Henceforward the rebellion is to decline. Its effect upon the enemy must be disheartening in the extreme, coupled with their recent misfortunes in Kentucky, Missouri and North Carolina. They must soon debate the question among themselves of a retrograde movement from Manassas to the southwest. It is not impossible that this is now going on, in connection with the withdrawal of their troops from the country immediately bordering on the Mississippi.—They must be driven to the interior gulf states, if our victory is followed up, and probably their next most serious stand will be made at Nashville, which is favorably situated for defence, as well as receiving supplies by railroad. Their plan if driven from the border states entirely, will lead them to delay the advance of the Union forces into the gulf states until warm weather, when our troops will be withdrawn on account of the climate. That the rebels will be conquered by one or two battles is not probable.

The effect of the victory at Fort Donelson will also be felt in Europe, and will induce the plotters against this government, to pause in their plans and calculations.—There will be a solemn time in Lord Palmerston's cabinet. What if these federal victories be followed up by still greater ones? What if the grand army of the Union, flushed by success, and indignant at the conduct of England, should "right about face" and march northward to the Queen's dominions? These questions may suggest a change of policy towards us, and baffle the schemes of the secessionists in Europe, who were, at last accounts, gaining ground. The heroic conduct of our brave troops at Fort Donelson, and their magnificent victory, will influence for good the prospects of their country in every cabinet in the civilized world.

The Cost of a Cavalry Regiment.

The expensiveness of this branch of the service has been a frequent subject of comment. To give some idea of it we give below some of the statistics of the 9th Illinois cavalry, which has just left Chicago for St. Louis.

This regiment numbers 1,035 men and 1,175 horses.

The camp equipage consists of 280 excellent tents, costing about $29,000. The arms, which have not yet been procured, will consist, for each man, of one Colt's revolver, one Sharp's carbine, and one regulation sabre, the aggregate costing in the neighborhood of $75,000. Of horse equipments there have been purchased 1,148, costing $38 each, in all $43,320. The clothing cost $50,000. During their stay in camp the monthly bills for forage and food have been $7,500; for rations, $159.10 per day, or $4,175 per month—making a total of $12,000 for subsistence alone.—The horses cost $129,250. The following is the approximate cost of the regiment:

Tents,	$ 29,000
Arms,	75,000
Horses,	129,250
Horse equipments,	43,320
Clothing,	50,000
Total,	$326,570

To this may be added three months' pay and subsistence while recruiting, as follows:

Subsistence,	$12,000
Three months' pay of privates and non-commissioned officers,	37,340
Three months' pay of staff, field and commissioned officers,	22,500
Total,	$71,840

If to this be added the cost of transporting the regiment to the seat of war, for which $12,000 would be a low estimate, it will foot up a grand total, as follows:

Outfit,	$326,570
Three month's pay and subsistence,	71,840
Transportation,	12,000
Grand total,	$410,410

Hereafter it may be safely estimated that to equip a regiment of cavalry and bring it into the field will cost at least half a million of dollars!—and an addition of twenty-five thousand dollars for every month they are kept in the field, independent of casualties.

A POOR PIECE OF PROPERTY.—When Floyd stole himself out of Fort Donnelson he purloined the meanest piece of property in this or any other country.

☞ It is reported in the Chicago Journal, yesterday, on the authority of a private dispatch, that Gen. Grant was severely but not fatally wounded, in the battle at Fort Donelson.

GOING TO LEAVE.—It is said that as soon as arrangements can be made for the payment of the whole or a part of the arrearages due the troops in this state, they will be sent to Cairo, under the requisition of Gen. Halleck. All the infantry regiments are armed, though all are not filled to the minimum number.

From the Chicago Times.

The Great Victory on the Cumberland.

FORT DONELSON.

Fort Donelson is an earth-work, and was constructed last summer, at the same time as Fort Henry, but is a much stronger fortification than the latter. It is situated near Dover, and on the bluffy bank of the Cumberland, where the river makes an obtuse angle. The fort is surrounded by high and steep hills, heavily wooded, and its strength is materially aided by two redoubts, trenches and rifle pits. It was recently armed with twenty heavy guns, which are ranged in two tiers on parapets. The upper tier of guns would not be effective if the river was low, as they could not be discharged at any object nearly under them without danger of being dismounted from their carriages. As the Cumberland, however, is high and rising, these guns may be effectively used against our gun boats.

A railroad, which communicates with Memphis, Clarksville, Nashville, Russellville and Bowling Green, passes but a few miles south of the fort. Some seven or eight important post-roads intersect near the fort. The position is important as controlling the river as far up as Clarksville, and, in conjunction with Fort Henry and Tennessee bridge, as breaking off from the rebels some twenty miles of railroad communication. From the nearest point to Fort Donelson on the Memphis railroad, the distance to Clarksville is thirty miles. The road crosses the Cumberland river here, and strong defensive works have been constructed.

To Nashville, the distance by rail from Fort Donelson is ninety-one miles, and to Bowling Green, ninety-four miles. To Memphis, the distance is 169 miles, but railroad communication has been cut off by the destruction of a portion of the railroad bridge across the Tennessee, sixteen miles above Fort Henry.

We fear the facility with which Fort Donelson may be reinforced is not sufficiently appreciated by those who looked for its immediate surrender. At Russelville, Logan county, Kentucky, about sixty miles from the fort, Generals Buckner and Floyd had their headquarters previous to the attack on Fort Henry, with ten or fifteen thousand rebel troops. Buckner has either gone to East Tennessee, to meet Thomas, or to Donelson. Some of the accounts from the fort state with much positiveness he is there.

Bowling Green was yesterday occupied by the federal troops under Gen. Mitchell. It has been ascertained that, as early as the 1st instant, large bodies of rebel troops were sent away from Bowling Green, its evacuation having been determined on at that time. On Monday last the remainder of their forces, under Gen. Hardee, hastily left the place, after dismantling the fortifications on which so much labor had been bestowed. The artilery at Bowling Green was sent south by rail, either to Nashville, Clarksville or Fort Donelson,—naturally to the latter place we should think. By river the fort can be reinforced from Clarksville or Nashville.

But of course their facilities for reinforcement will not avail the garrison of Fort Donelson if, as our telegrams state, they are completely cut off from the railroad and river. An attempt to throw reinforcements into the fort from either would be met and frustrated by Gen. Grant and the gunboats.

FEDERAL REINFORCEMENTS.

While the confederates possess great advantages in placing troops in the vicinity of Fort Donelson, the federal authorities have ample resources, and are using them. Sixty steamboats were yesterday chartered at Cincinnati, to carry troops up the Cumberland.

Assistant Secretary of War Scott has been in the west for some time past, said to be making arrangements for railroad transportation. It has been announced that he has secured the exclusive use of the railroad from Pittsburgh to Cincinnati for six days, with the view of transporting 50,000 troops from Washington into Tennessee. From Pittsburgh to Washington railroad transportation is under government control, whenever required, for its exclusive use.

THE CUMBERLAND RIVER.

The capture of Fort Donelson will give us a very strong hold on the Cumberland, and become a base for operations further on, extending in time to Nashville, the capital of Tennessee.

The Cumberland river rises in the Cumberland Mountains, near the boundary between Virginia and Kentucky, and, pursuing a westerly or southwesterly course, enters the state of Tennessee. After an extensive sweep to the south it turns northwestwardly and northerly, and enters and crosses Kentucky, entering the Ohio 11½ miles east of the mouth of the Tennessee river and 59 miles above the mouth of the Ohio. The entire length of the river is about 600 miles, and it drains a territory of 17,000 square miles. It is navigable for large steamboats and vessels to Nashville, 203 miles from the mouth, and for boats of 15 tons 300 miles further. At certain seasons of high water, vessels of 400 tons can descend the river 400 miles to the Ohio, and for half its length boats may navigate it at all seasons. It is the second river in size which enters the Ohio, being inferior only to the Tennessee. Below Nashville, the river is deep and narrow. There are on the borders of the Cumberland nineteen furnaces, nine forges, and two rolling mills, producing annually 44,500 tons of iron, valued at $1,673,000.

THE CITY OF NASHVILLE.

In a short time, if our armies progress in the west as energetically as they have done of late, Nashville will become a place of interest as connected with our movements up the Cumberland. It is connected with Bowling Green by railroad. Nashville is situated on the left or the west bank of the Cumberland river, some two hundred miles by the course of the stream from its mouth; 280 miles northeast of Memphis; 206 miles southwest of Lexington in Kentucky, and 684 miles from Washington city.

The population of Nashville at the present time is about 26,000.

THE INVESTMENT OF THE FORT.

Gen. Grant's command left Fort Henry on Wednesday, and the greater portion was encamped in front of the enemy at Fort Donelson before dark on the same evening. The column was six miles long, and surrounded the enemy entirely, including the town of Dover. The pickets of the enemy were driven in on Wednesday night.

The gunboat Carondolet was the only one of the fleet that reached the vicinity of the fort on Wednesday. She engaged the batteries the next day, previous to the arrival of the remainder of the squadron under Com. Foote.

THE BOMBARDMENT OF THE FORT ON THURSDAY.

Camp near Fort Donelson, Feb. 13.

Fort Donelson is invested by our troops. Our lines are formed from right to left, from north to south, nearly surrounding the fort. Heavy cannonading and skirmishing have been going on on since 7½ o'clock A. M. The cannonading was discontinued at 8 P. M.

The fight continued with more or less vigor all day, but with little progress, as the enemy is completely intrenched on all sides by formidable works, located on high and steep ridges, thickly covered with timber and underbrush. The work of dislodging them is most formidable. Our lines completely surround them, however, and we have them to work upon at our leisure.

It is evident that the rebels have determined to make a desperate stand. They have concentrated a force here which is fully equal, if not greater than our own.

The enemy has been receiving reinforcements all day from Bowling Green via Nashville.

The operations to-day have mostly consisted in cannonading at intervals between the two forces, and frequent skirmishing.

Our sharpshooters descend into the ravines, and climb up the ridge upon which the enemy is located, and pop away whenever one shows himself. The enemy replies in the same way.

Birge's sharpshooters have distinguished themselves in this way. Company G, Capt. L. L. B. Cutler, got within seventy-five yards of one rebel battery, and completely silenced it during nearly the whole afternoon. The moment a gunner advanced to man any of the pieces, he was sure to be shot dead in his tracks.

A desperate advance was made on a rebel redoubt at one o'clock, by the seventeenth and forty-ninth Illinois, under Col. Morrison, of the last named regiment. They made two gallant charges, penetrating up close to the breastworks, but were obliged in both instances to fall back under a heavy cross-fire of artillery and infantry. Both regiments suffered severely.

Close up to the ramparts great quantities of brush wood were piled up before the breastworks, which it was impossible to penetrate. Captain Brokaw, of the forty-ninth Illinois, was killed. The adjutant of the seventeenth Illinois was slightly wounded in the hand, while taking a gallant part. Altogether the loss of the two regiments will amount to 100 killed and wounded.

The twenty-fifth Indiana suffered somewhat severely in a sally of the enemy upon them from the fort, but rallied promptly and chased them back.

Altogether, our loss to-day is about 250 in killed and wounded. Capt. Mendell, of the seventh Illinois, was killed early in the morning.

A heavy rain set in, which will have a severe effect upon our men to-night, lying out, as they necessarily must, without tents, and, in many instances in such positions as to render even fires impossible. The soldiers are, however, courageous and firm.

The Carondolet fought from nine o'clock Thursday morning until 12, when a 128-pounder, sent by the rebels, passed through her wood-work, wounding seven of her crew with splinters. She withdrew and placed the wounded on the transport Alps, and returned to continue the engagement. The Alps, coming down with the wounded, met Commodore Foote 30 miles below Fort Donelson, with the gunboats St. Louis, Louisville, Pittsburgh, Conestoga and Tyler. She towed the St. Louis and Pittsburgh to within 25 miles of Fort Donelson, and left them Friday morning at three o'clock.

The Carondolet opened the fire at some distance from the fort. The enemy immediately replied, and the Carondolet was advancing when a battery of five pieces opened upon her from the opposite side of the river. Two of the enemy's guns were dismounted, and one burst.

The fort is surrounded with high and steep hills, heavily wooded. It was protected by two redoubts, trenches and rifle pits.

The rebels gave battle from their entrenchments outside the fort. They were driven in after a severe battle and a considerable loss of life on both sides.

IN CAMP NEAR FORT DONELSON, Feb. 14.

Last night was very severe on our troops, rain having set in which was turned to snow. It is freezing to-day and old citizens [illegible] such cold weather in this latitude.

The more I see of the fort the more convinced am I it cannot be reduced without a terrible battle. Its rear seems almost impregnable. The outer works and bastions of the fort are located on ridges 150 to 250 feet high, covered with dense timber and undergrowth.

Upon a similar range of hills outside them, our army is drawn up in line of battle, completely encircling the enemy from the Cumberland south of the fort to the backwater of a stream which flanks the fort on the north.

Gen. Oglesby, who has the extreme right, last night pushed forward his brigade to the Cumberland, and has planted a battery commanding the river, which will effectually prevent the arrival of any more reinforcements.

In fact, we have them completely surrounded, and can complete the job at our leisure. A formidable attempt was made last night to take Taylor's battery by the enemy, who approached under cover of darkness, but they were gallantly repulsed by the 20th Illinois.

Considerable skirmishing occurred during the night, both forces endeavoring, in the darkness, to crowd in upon the other. This morning it was discovered that the enemy had placed logs on top of their breastworks, leaving little space for them to shoot through, and much diminishing their risks from the unerring aim of our sharpshooters.

The casualities among our artillery thus far was very small. The loss of the enemy as far as can be ascertained is considerable.

Yesterday afternoon, after the storming party had retired, and when the rebels were thickly crowded together, to repel the assault, Capt. Taylor opened on them with shell with terrible effect. His practice was superb, creating the greatest consternation in their ranks, and causing them to take refuge in their entrenchments.

The gunboat assault was terrific, exceeding even the Fort Henry bombardment. It lasted about an hour and a half.

The enemy has fronting on the river two batteries, the lower one of nine, and the upper four guns, besides a 10-inch columbiad.

The wooden gunboats, Tyler and Conestoga were engaged in the fight.

Commodore Foote pronounces the engagement the hottest he ever witnessed.

Seven of the nine guns in the lower tier of the enemy's battery had been silenced, and everything was apparently progressing favorably, when the rudder-chain of the Carondolet was severed.

The Pittsburg was damaged in the wheel so as to be unable to stem the current, and the pilot-house was knocked away, killing the pilot and slightly wounding several others, among them Com. Foote.

The fleet then were obliged to retire.

One of our shells struck immediately under one of the enemy's guns, throwing the gun and bodies of the gunners high in the air.

A great number of dead and wounded could be seen carried up the hill.

Commodore Foote's wounds are slight.

The St. Louis was struck 57 times, the Louisville 35, the Pittsburg 21 and the Carondolet 26.

EASTERN KENTUCKY.—Col. Garfield, commanding the federal forces in Eastern Kentucky, was at last accounts—February 10—making an advance up the Big Sandy river to Piketon, with his whole brigade. He is now there, with a fighting force of between three and four thousand. The water in the river is lowering, so that difficulty will be experienced in getting provisions up. No rebels are reported this side of Pound Gap.

Special dispatch to the St. Louis Democrat.

SPRINGFIELD, Feb. 16.

According to latest advices the federal army was vigorously in pursuit of the rebels.

Price's army was on Craney creek, 29 miles from here, on Friday evening, and our forces five miles in the rear, preparing to make an early start in pursuit, next morning. Price had placed his train in advance. About 100 wagons containing supplies for him were brought into this place from Forsyth, only a few hours before his retreat. Rebel sympathisers here claim that Price will be reinforced by 12 or 15 regiments from Bentonville, under Gen. Van Dorn, but Gen. Sigel, who was advancing on the rebel column, by a different route than that pursued by Gen. Curtis, may strike a blow on their flank, and upset Price's calculations.

Four rebel officers and thirteen privates, fell into our hands on Friday, and are now here. The officers are the notorious Col. Freeman, Maj. Berry, aid-de-camp to Gen. McBride, Capt. Dickenson, chief engineer, and Capt. Downell, quarter master.

A pony express with relay posts has been established by Capt. Baldwin, between Rolla and this point.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 17.

Fort Donelson surrendered at 9 o'clock yesterday morning to the land forces. The gunboats were present at the time. An immense amount of war material is among the trophies of the victory. Floyd skulked away the night before the surrender. The gunboat Carondolet, Capt. Walker, arrived at Cairo with the news. A large number of our wounded have been brought to the Paducah and Cairo hospitals.

This city is wild with excitement and joy. The news was read at the Union Merchants' Exchange, creating the most intense enthusiasm. The "Star Spangled Banner," "Flag of Our Union," and "Red White and Blue," were sung by all present, after which they adjourned and marched to the army headquarters, 12,000 or 15,000 strong, where three rousing cheers were given for Halleck, Foote and Grant.

Halleck appeared at the window and thanked the people for their hearty demonstration and said:—"I promised when I came here that with your aid I would drive the enemies of our flag from your state.—This has been done, and they are virtually out of Kentucky and will soon be out of Tennessee."

More cheers were given for the Union, the "Star Spangled Banner" repeated, and the crowd dispersed.

Judge Holt wept for joy when he heard the news. Many stores are closed, and the city is being decorated with flags, and evidences of great joy are everywhere manifested.

Gov. Yates, Secretary Hatch, Auditor Dubois, of Illinois, left for Fort Donelson this morning, to look after the wounded Illinois troops.

A requisition has been made for all steamboats in this vicinity to be held in readiness for the transportation of troops and government stores.

BOSTON, Feb. 17.

The news of the capture of Fort Donelson created a perfect furore of patriotic jubilation in Boston, to-day. There has never been so much joy manifested.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.

Chief Justice Taney this morning delivered the opinion in the case of Gordon, the slave trader, denying the motion made by Judge Dean for a writ of prohibition to prevent his execution, on the ground of a want of power in the court to review proceedings in criminal cases to restrain action of a ministerial officer. The application was based on an irregularity of the circuit court of New York.

PITTSBURG, Feb. 17.

News of the capture of Fort Donelson was received here with intense delight.—Business during the day was partially suspended; bells rung, and flags were displayed at various business houses and public buildings. To-night the post office, custom house, newspaper offices and other buildings will be illuminated; bonfires and other demonstrations.

DETROIT, Feb. 17.

The news of the victory at Ft. Donelson caused indescribable joy here. One hundred guns were fired on the receipt of the news. Buildings were illuminated; the fire department, military and citizens were out in grand parade, with banners, torches and rockets to celebrate the great event.

CHICAGO, Feb. 17.

The news of the surrender of Fort Donelson, received this A. M., created the wildest enthusiasm. Business of all kinds was temporarily suspended. The board of trade adjourned at an early hour. People claim it as a victory of Illinois, the troops there being 25 Illinois infantry regiments, 6 Iowa and 4 Indiana; 4 regiments Illinois cavalry and 6 companies of Missouri artillery.

CHICAGO, Feb. 17.

Special to the Times, Fort Donelson, 16th.—Fort Donelson surrendered at daylight this morning, unconditionally. We have generals Buckner, Johnston and Bushrod, and 15,000 prisoners, with three thousand horses. Pillow and Floyd with their brigades, ran away on steamers without letting Buckner know their intention.

Gen. Smith led the charge on the lower end of the works, and was the first inside fortifications. The Fort Henry runaways were bagged. The prisoners are being loaded on steamers for Cairo. Our loss is heavy, probably 400 killed and 800 wounded. We lost a large per centage. Among them are Lieut. Cols. Erwin of 20th Illinois, and White of the 40th; Cols. John A. Logan, Lawler and Ransom are wounded. Major Post, 8th Illinois, with 200 privates, are prisoners, gone to Nashville, having been taken prisoners the night before the surrender. The enemy's loss is heavy, but not so large as ours, as they fought behind entrenchments. We should have taken them by storm Saturday if our ammunition had not given out in the night. McClernand's division, and Oglesby's and McArthur's brigades suffered terribly.—They were composed of the 8th, 9th, 11th, 18th, 20th, 29th, 30th, 31st, 45th, 48th, 49th, Illinois regiments.

Gen. Lew Wallace, with the 11th Indiana, 8th Missouri, and the same Ohio regiments, participated. Taylor's, McAlister's Dresser's and Schwartz's battery were in the fight from the commencement. The enemy turned our right for nearly half an hour but our ground was more than regained. Lauman's brigade of Smith's division was the first in the lower end of the enemys works, which were carried by charge of bayonets. Nine-tenths of the rebels were pitted against our right.

The works outside of the fort extended five miles along our lines. The rebels lost 48 howitzers, 17 heavy guns, 20,000 stand of arms, besides a large quantity of commissary stores. They are completely demoralized, and have no confidence in their leaders as they charge Pillow and Floyd with deserting them. Our troops from the moment of the investment of the fort on Wednesday lay on their arms night and day, half the time without provision, and all the time without tents; a portion of the time in heavy rains.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.

The House committee on contracts have been discharged from the further consideration of quarter master Van Vliet's advertisement for horses. The committee say the shortness of the notice for bids was owing to a pressing necessity.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 17.

Union men are overflowing with joy. The news is nowhere more acceptable than to them. Secesh is overwhelmed with this Waterloo defeat.

MORNING DESPATCHES.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.

Tribune's correspondence.—The committee of ways and means, in a protracted session this morning, debated and voted upon the several amendments made by the senate to the 1st and 2d sections of the legal tender bill. Messrs. Corning, Morrill, Horton and Stratton voted throughout to concur in all the changes of principle. Messrs. Stevens, Sheldon, Hooper and Maynard adhered to all the distinctive features of the bill as passed by the house. The vote thus standing four to four; these amendments of the senate were not concurred in, which makes the issue of new notes $100,000,000 instead of $150,000,000, which includes the $50,000,000 authorized July 17th requiring the interest on bonds and notes to be paid in coin, make the 20 year bonds redeemable after five years, authorize the conversion of notes, in sums not less than 100 dollars, into 7 3-10 bonds, and funded at 6 per cent, redeemable after five years, and payable in 20 years, instead of redeemable after 20 years as the claimants directed, and authorize the throwing the bonds on the market for what they will fetch.

Numerous letters were read to the committee by Mr. Stevens, advising the passage of the legal tender bill without the specie interest clause, and a resolution to that effect from the chambers of commerce in Louisville, St. Louis, Chicago, Cincinnati and Milwaukee.

Mr. Washburn, just arrived from Illinois, represented the demand for the bill as universal and imperative.

It is reported to-night, upon the authority of a telegram from Gen. Banks, that Mr. Faulkner has, within a day or two, made a speech at Martinsburg, in which he expressed the opinion that the rebellion was a failure, and advised his hearers to make the best terms possible for themselves with the United States.

The house military committee are considering a bill to enlarge the Michigan and Chicago canal to the capacity for ships.—It heard, to-day, a delegation from Illinois, and examined their plans for the improvement, including the deepening of the Illinois river to the Mississippi, through which the canal and river pass. They have agreed to surrender their property and jurisdiction to the government for a while, and receive the tolls in payment for the interest on the investment. Mr. Blair, chairman, has been authorized to report a bill for the week.

Six hundred and sixty sailors, volunteers from Massachusetts and Maine regiments, have started for Cairo, to-day, to man the eight iron clad gunboats, which have been waiting for them more than two weeks.—Every sea-faring man in the regiments from whom these were detailed was anxious to be one of them.

NEW YORK, Feb. 18.

The board of aldermen authorized the committee on military affairs to take steps for extending a formal reception to Col. Corcoran and his fellow psisoners on their arrival in this city.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

CHICAGO, Feb. 18.

Tribune's special says that the position of the ground occupied by our troops in the attack on Fort Donelson was such that not more than one regiment could operate at the same time, while the rebels could bring their whole force to bear against us. The first regiment to receive the rebels was the 18th, which fought with desperate courage until their ammunition was exhausted, when they were forced to retire, and were replaced by the 8th. They, too, were driven back, after firing the last round. Meanwhile, other regiments were lending such feeble aid as their position would admit. Gen. Wallace was then ordered to reinforce McClernand, and sent two brigades from the center.

The 31st Illinois, Col. Logan, fought like veterans, defending Schwartz's battery under the most galling fire, until every horse at the battery was killed, together with all the officers who had charge of the guns, as well as the lieutenant colonel, acting major, seven captains, and a number of the lieutenants of the 31st had been killed, and the colonel wounded. Capt. McCook, who was left in command, drew off what was left of the regiment, not, however until the last round was exhausted, and they had driven the rebels before them. The second brigade then came up and took the place from which they had retired, and fought desperately, losing a great number killed, but with the assistance of a portion of Col. Wallace's division, and the 49th and 59th Ohio, drove the rebels back to their entrenchments, gaining a portion of the ground lost. The object of the rebels evidently was to cut their way through our troops.

The general Johnson taken is Bushrod Johnson, a brigadier from Tennessee.

CAIRO, Feb. 17.

The steamer Memphis arrived from Fort Donnelson this evening, bringing a Mississippi regiment prisoners, & 50 or 60 wounded soldiers, who were left at Mound City. Eight or nine other boats are on the way with rebel prisoners.

The rebels who escaped are supposed to have gone to Nashville, where, or at Clarkvill, it is supposed the confederates will attempt to make another stand.

This evening a great light was seen for several hours in the direction of Clarksville, and it is supposed the rebels have either burned the town or their gunboats in the river, to prevent them falling into our hands.

Rebel officers admit that if we take Nashville, the rebellion in Tennessee is gone up.

The prisoners will probably be sent to Camp Douglas, Chicago.

NEW YORK, Feb. 18.

The Edinburg, Liverpool midnight 3d, Queenstown night of the 4th, arrived at noon to-day. Her advices are via Liverpool one day later, but by way of Queenstown they are two days later.

The rebel steamer Nashville left Southampton on the third inst. She passed the federal gunboat Tuscorora, off Cowes, where the latter was anchored. The Tuscorora steamed up to start in chase of the Nashville, but the frigate Shannon was alongside to prevent her departure for 24 hours. The last seen of the Nashville she was steaming down the channel with all speed.

The brigantine Fanny Lewis, from Charleston 1st of January, has arrived at Liverpool with cotton and rosin.

The London Morning Post renews the report that the Arch Duke Maximillian will accept the throne of Mexico.

VIENNA, Feb. 4.

Austria will accept the throne of Mexico for the arch duke Maxmillian, but will not cede Venitia in exchange. There is a monetary crisis at Venitia, and the government has decided upon a forced circulation of the new money. Disturbances have taken place at Verona and Mantua.

CLEVELAND, Feb. 8.

Firing of cannon all day, yesterday, bonfires and general rejoicing all last night, in honor of the taking of Fort Donelson.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 18.

The Republican's Fort Donelson correspondent gives the following account of the fighting on Saturday: Yesterday morning, just at daylight, a heavy sortie was made by the garrison from the left portion of their works. This attack was made upon the extreme right wing of the Union army, where it was weakest, being a part of Gen. McClernand's division, under Col. Ogelsby, consisting of his brigade, which was stationed there; also Schwartz's and McAllister's batteries. This was a point upon a ridge leading into the right redoubt, and was situated just above the main fort. During the night the enemy could be heard busily at work, but at what it was impossible to tell, as the thickets and woods encompassed the Union troops on every side, rendering the view in any direction almost impossible.

At daylight a large body of the enemy suddenly appeared on the extreme right wing of Col. Ogelsby's command, and opened a terrible fire with cannon from their redoubts, playing at the same time upon our force from guns placed in position on the night previous.

The camp of the 28th and 31st Indiana was most exposed, and the whole brigade was at once formed into line as follows:—

The 18th Illinois held the extreme right, the 8th Illinois next, 30th Illinois next, then the 29th Illinois supporting the right of Capt. Schwartz's battery, and the 31st Illinois defending the artillery on the left.

From the firing of the first gun until 9 o'clock, the battle raged unrelentingly and with fearful force on both sides. Again and again our troops drove the enemy back but they were often reinforced, while our troops had, owing to the extended lines of the army, and also their positions on the extreme right, to fight unassisted.

No more gallant fighting took place than that of these Union troops. Exposed to the terrible firing of treble their numbers they stood their ground until, in some regiments, every officer was killed or wounded. At last and reluctantly, regiment by regiment, they slowly fell back, leaving Schwartz's battery and three of McAllister's guns in the rebel's hands. Retiring a few hundred yards they again made a stand and Gen. Smith arrived with reinforcements, and at once drove the enemy again into their works.

In the first of the battle was also General Wallace's brigade, the 12th, 11th 17th, and 48th; also Col. McArthur's brigade, all of which troops suffered severely. Opposed to them were 12,000 rebels, supported by guns placed carefully in position.

General Grant having command of a division, drove the enemy back with reinforcements and gained the lost ground, at once ordered an advance by Gen. Smith on the left. Charging under a hot fire up the steep hill, on which was the outer redoubt, our troops gained the high breast works, and with hardly a pause went over them planting the stars and stripes over the walls under a most galling fire. They formed and charged and drove the rebels back, until they fell into a new position behind some batteries. When evening came the union troops had been victorious at every point, having gained back the ground lost in the morning and got within a part of the enemy's works. Our troops held their position during that night, repelling repeated assults.

The scene within the captured fort, after the surrender showed how terribly the rebel garrison had suffered. Everywhere were lying fragments of shells and round shot, half buried in the earth, tents were torn in pieces, gun carriages broken, and blood scattered around. In the left redoubt, where the assault had taken place, the dead bodies lay thickly, and abundant evidence of the stern resistance and gallant attack was visible.

On the extreme right, half a mile distant, where the desperate sortie was made by the garrison, similar scenes were visible. The gallantry of the Union troops has been well and severely tested, and they have proved more than equal to the task before them.

As the fleet approached the fort this morning a salute was fired and loud cheers went up when the American flags were visible. No officer in the army had an idea of Fort Donelson's defences until they had been gained and examined. Several regiments, when out of ammunition, rushed forward, and although exposed to the full fire of the rebel artillery, gallantly drove their foes back with the bayonet and captured their guns. The following are the names of some of the rebel officers captured: Cols. Ganett, Vorhies, Forrest, Brown and Abernati.

Another Addition.

We have received, through H. E. Pattison of this city, who obtained them of C. P. Bradley, chief of police in Chicago, some of the confederate notes (or scrip) engraved for Hendricks, the particulars of whose arrest we have published. They ornament our "Secession Picture Gallery," and can be examined by our friends.

Secession Pills.

We have received from Mr. Wiard of New York, the inventor of the new rifled steel cannon, several of the shells used in his and other rifled guns, and a couple of cannister shot ready for use. Two of the shells are 42-pounders, and look like ugly customers to those who get in the way of them when sent whirling on their mission of death, and the cannisters would be any thing but pleasant companions in a hot fight. They were despoiled of their destructive propensities, and "dead-headed" to us by the Merchant's Despatch Company, to which and the donor our thanks are tendered.

BALL AT THE HYATT HOUSE.—The party at the Hyatt House to-night promises to be a large one, and the good news from Fort Donelson will add a peculiar zest to the festivities. A rare good time is anticipated.

JANESVILLE MEN IN CAIRO.—Milton H. Doty, of this city, in Capt. Britton's company, writing from Cairo, 12th inst., says: "We have had a good many visitors this week. I will mention some of them—the first one that come to see us was O. P. Martin, and since then the following individuals have been here—Archy McLean, Mat Bullock, John Maloy, and lastly, Jim Burgess, who arrived here this morning. He took us by surprise, as we had not 'arosen' yet. I think he has improved a great deal in looks, since I saw him last. He looks more fleshy and rugged, but he uses just as much tobacco as ever. He went up town this morning and bought a barrel of apples, and brought them down and presented them to the company. We gave him three cheers and a tiger. He took off his hat and said, 'I salute company G uncovered.' I think he will stay here a few days. He intended to go up the river to Fort Henry, but they wont let him. They don't propose to have any more Bull Run arrangements. The citizens will have to stay back and let the soldiers do the fighting this time."

☞ Lieut. Archy McLean, Matthew Bullock and John Maloy, of this city, belong to the 57th Illinois regiment; and O. P. Martin, a printer, formerly of this city, is sergeant major of the 8th Illinois. They were, probably, all in the battle at Fort Donelson.

HORSE SHOW IN CHICAGO.—A "World's Horse Fair" will be held in Chicago, commencing on the 2d of September next, and continuing two weeks. The fair is open to all nations for competition, and it is intended to make it the largest collection of horses ever exhibited in America. Twenty-five thousand dollars in premiums will be given. There will be a $1,000 premium for the best trotter, and probably the same for the fastest four-mile running horse; a $500 premium for the best lady rider, with equestrian exhibitions every day; also a series of elk races. Stock, farm and road horses will receive over one-third of the premiums, which are the largest ever given. The officers are:

President—Hon. F. C. Sherman, Chicago.
Vice-President—Geo. Wilkes, New York.
General Sup't—J. Milton Smith, Chicago.
Secretary—W. P. Isham, Chicago.

E. H. Bennett, of this city, has been appointed one of the marshals.

From the Thirteenth Regiment.

The following is an extract from a private letter, written by Capt. P. Norcross, of the thirteenth Wisconsin regiment, dated Shawneetown, Kansas, Feb. 9;

"Last Friday morning, Feb. 6th, the 13th Wisconsin regiment took up the line of march for Fort Scott, distant from Fort Leavenworth about 135 miles, and this evening finds me in this town with my company, quartered in what used to be a lager beer saloon. As good luck would have it, I found a good place for myself, Dr. Evans, Wallihan, and young Burgess, in the best house of this Indian town.

Shawneetown is a great town and great are the people thereof—a few civilized whites, a few Indians, and a few half-breeds. Law is not respected here. A man who has lived here for four years, told me that he had known of four murders, since he came here, and that none of the offenders had been arrested.

The Shawnees and Delawares are quite near here. For Indians they are quite civilized. They have good houses, fair schools, and most of the children are tolerably educated.

We have, so far, had a very tedious march. The roads are covered with ice, the weather is so cold that the water in our canteens freezes, as also does the meat in our haversacks.

One poor fellow, Burlingame, by name, froze his feet so badly that he will probably lose one of them. He was foolish enough to ride on a baggage wagon. There is a good road in advance of us—so the citizens say. I hope so.

There is considerable poetry in this kind of marching, after all its fatigues and hardships. In the morning, when the boys all feel happy, they sing songs and tell stories from one end of the regiment to the other. The woods, in some of the localities, are really grand. It just begins to seem as if we were out of the world—the civilized portion of it I mean."

SHAWNEETOWN, Kansas, Feb. 9. On the road to Fort Scott.

Friday morning at 10 o'clock we left the city of Leavenworth, turning our backs on the comfortable quarters we had enjoyed there, and started on a long and wearisome march of over 130 miles due south, the longest trip any Wisconsin regiment has as yet made. The roads were covered with ice, and our marching was all sliding by the hardest, 15 miles without stopping to rest, and brought up at "Johnnycakes," the house of an Indian chief by that name. He is civilized, has a fine farm and good buildings. Two of the companies quartered in his barn, and many of the officers and sick in his house. However, I did not see any "johnnycake."

We heard stories of dire accidents to the baggage train, which was miles behind; of wagons upset, knapsacks spilled, &c. We built a fire and sat shivering around it, listening for the distant rumble of wheels to tell us that our knapsacks were coming. We had been so fortunate as to have all the knapsacks loaded on wagons, being spared the infliction of carrying them.

At last they came, and wrapping our blankets around us, and laying with our faces towards the fire, we passed a miserable night. Some of us were so fortunate as to have an old bee house open on all four sides, but with a roof, and considered ourselves very lucky indeed to have that much of a shelter.

In the morning we took up our line of march; traveled six miles and brought up on the banks of the Kau, (Indian name of Kansas) river. Here the regiment halted, companies "A" and "F," crossed the river, and we waited for the baggage train to come up. When it came a long rope was fastened to the wagons, half a hundred men would take hold and hold back, and one at a time the huge wagons were let down to the river. At the further shore was a steep bank, and just before reaching it the mules were whipped into a brisk trot, and with men running along at the side of the teams, whipping the animals at every step, the ascent would be made sometimes easily, and occasionally with a great deal of difficulty.

From the river we came on to this village, where we shall stay over Sunday. The boys will get a good rest, and will be in good marching condition when called on to start. It is hard work to march all day, sleep on the ground, get a hasty breakfast, and start off again with our joints stiff and limbs aching. Chivalry keeps many men from giving up. It goes against a man's pride to give up as "tired out," while his comrades are still "marching on" apparently fresh and unwearied. At Fort Scott I will write you again. Your soldier friend,

CLARENCE W. BAKER.

OPERA.—We are assured by those who witnessed the performance of the Holman Opera Troupe last evening, that it was well worth the time and money expended. They will give two more of their entertainments, at Lappin's Hall, before leaving our city. We trust our citizens will give them a good house to-night.

CERTIFICATES

as to the value of

The Jessup Seed Drill.

THE following certificates have been given by persons using the Jessup Seed Drill:

FULTON.

Mr. Soverhill:—I take pleasure in saying that the Jessup Drill which I purchased of you last spring operates to my entire satisfaction. The draft is light, it distributes the grain very evenly and accurately, and there is no possibility of its cracking the grain. I am acquainted with the operation of many different drills and can cheerfully recommend the Jessup as a superior one. Yours, JOB ALLEN.

Mr. Soverhill:—The Jessup Drill I purchased of you last spring operates as well as I could wish it to. I would cheerfully recommend it to any one in want of a drill. WM. SHORT.

Albion, Dane county.

Mr. Soverhill:—I hereby certify that the Jessup Grain Drill I purchased of you last spring works in the most satisfactory manner. I think it a good and durable machine, and worthy the patronage of every good farmer. It is a saving in seed and labor.

Cooksville, Nov. 25, 1861. H. STEBBINS.

I have examined many drills and am satisfied that the Jessup is the best. I used one last spring and like it much. It is very accurate and light draft.

Bradford, Dec. 27, 1861. WALTER STONE.

Mr. Soverhill:—We cordially assent to what Mr. Stebbins says about the Jessup Drill.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

To the People of

Janesville, Rock & adjoining Counties

McKey & Bro's

MAMMOTH STORE

FULLY COMPLETED

and

READY FOR BUSINESS.

WE have now completed our new addition, making our store decidedly the largest business establishment west of New York city; size, 44 feet by 160, five stories high including basement. And in order to fill the same, we found it necessary in the early part of the season, to purchase ten times our usual amount of stock. Anticipating a still further advance on Foreign and Domestic goods, we made another extensive purchase immediately before the great and unprecedented advance which has taken place within the past two weeks. We have now in stock, at our different establishments, over $250,000 Worth of Merchandize!

Every single dollars worth of which was purchased before the advance, and in order to give our patrons a general benefit, we shall, for the

Next 20 Days, Sell at Retail Only,

the following goods at the prices mentioned, namely: Our entire stock of perfectly

FAST COLORED PRINTS

at 10 cents per yard. Let the people bear in mind that Prints have advanced in price 50 per cent; still we have concluded to close out the amount of our retail stock of Prints, being the very best brands in the market, at 10 Cents per Yard.

We have now on hand

10 Cases Madder Color Prints

suitable for bedding, which we will sell, for the next 20 days, at 10 yards for $1, worth this day in Chicago 10 cents per yard at wholesale. The above prices are for the retail trade exclusively.

5,000 Chenille Scarfs

at 12½ cents each

Just received, five cases of plain, solid color

DE LAINES!

which we offer, for the next 20 days, at prices even lower than prints, namely: 12 yards for $1. Just imagine,

Eight Pence per Yard for DeLaines.

3,000 pieces fancy figured DeLaines, nice small patterns, of the very best printing, which we offer for the next 20 days, at one shilling per yard, or eight yards for $1, the same price as prints.

We would ask attention to the following: our entire stock of splendid

Manchester and Pacific DeLaines,

sold to-day in New York City at 25 cents, we now offer, for the next 20 days, at 1 shilling 6 pence per yard, or 10 yards for $1,83, which is the retail price of prints in many cities of this state to-day.

OUR MILLINERY DEPARTMENT

is well filled with a select stock of

Ribbons, Flowers, Plumes, Trimmings, &c.,

and presents great inducements to customers.

We call particular attention to our

Dress Goods Department.

Having purchased in the early part of December 5,000 pieces of different styles of Dress Goods, at the great closing auction sales of the season, from Wilderming, Hogart & Humbert, William Topping & Co., Wilderming & Mount, Hagarty & Co., Rudrow, Jones & Co., and Lockwood Brothers, where no goods are sold but by the case, direct from the Importers. And having purchased exclusively for cash, enables us this day to offer to our customers some

FOREIGN DRESS GOODS

as cheap as a common DeLaine, and in many cases as low as the present tariff prices. For instance, we now offer 100 pieces splendid Repps, ¾ yard wide at 2 shillings per yard, elegantly printed and of the most modern designs, and sold by us in the early part of the season at 50 cents per yard. We now offer, for the next 20 days, 100 pieces of double width Repps, sold by us last month at 63 cents per yard, now only 44 cents. All our

Mohairs, Poplins, French Merinos, Plain Repps

and many other styles at an equal reduction. Our stock of

CLOAKS AND SHAWLS

is now much larger than at any time previous this season, and in order to close them out we offer the entire stock at a

GREAT REDUCTION,

from 20 to 40 per cent from last week's prices.

We have recently fitted up a spacious

Carpet Room

the entire length of our store, and filled it to its utmost capacity with a splendid stock of

Carpets and Oil Cloths,

purchased before the great advance on Woolens and Cottons.

OUR STOCK OF CLOTHING

is large and varied, and also comprises Hats, Caps, Furnishing Goods, Buffalo Robes, Furs, &c., all purchased previously to the great advance—yet, for the purpose of closing out the entire stock, we now offer it at a Great Reduction.

Garments Made and Cut to Order.

Hoop Skirts!

We call the particular attention of the ladies to our unequaled stock of Hoop Skirts, comprising the Belle Trail, Four Cord Diamond Skirts which we now offer at

FOUR CENTS PER ROW.

Also, the new Wove Tape Skirts with sealed tabs and patent fastenings, which we had made to order in New York city, and are warranted never to

Get Out of Shape.

Also a large assortment of these much worn Balmoral Skirts, and very cheap.

IN CONCLUSION,

we beg leave to assure our customers that we will continue to do business upon the principle which has heretofore given such general satisfaction, and our store such wide-spread reputation. Make no purchases until you have paid a visit to our establishment, where you will find a greater variety, larger stock and

than any other store in this part of the world. Persons living at a distance, in the purchase of the small sum of five dollars, can make sufficient to pay the expense by coming to our store to trade, as from 25 to 50 per ct.

CAN BE SAVED

by purchasing at our house, in comparison to prices paid at country stores.

SECOND GREAT ARRIVAL

Fall and Winter Goods!

AT THE

NEW AND POPULAR STORE

RIORDAN & LEECH,

Main Street, Janesville.

OWING to the immense trade we have done since commencement in this city, (a trade which far exceeded our most sanguine expectations,) we have been enabled to add to our already well selected and extensive stock a still greater variety of

NEW AND DESIRABLE GOODS,

all of which have been purchased previous to the late advance, thereby giving us the advantage of merchants who have been obliged to pay a far higher rate for goods purchased within the past week or two; we shall therefore continue to sell at prices which are sure to give satisfaction, and which have given us the character of

The Cheapest Store in Janesville,

and which we are determined to maintain during our whole business career.

We call particular attention to our extensive variety of

DRESS GOODS,

comprising the latest styles in market: beautiful figured and plain Merinoes, all colors, Ottoman Repps, Silk Poplins, double width Broches, black and white check Valentias, Cordelinas, Coburgs, &c., &c., together with an elegant assortment of

of the very richest styles.

SHAWLS AND CLOAKS.

In this department we have always been able to boast of the best selection in town and have added all the

Different Styles Lately Manufactured,

thereby enabling us to offer the

HANDSOMEST LOT OF CLOAKS

to be found in any city of the west, not even excepting Chicago. Our stock of

Broche, Square and Long Shawls

are cheaper than ever before offered in this city, being the importation of Thirion Mallaird & Co. and purchased at auction at about one half their actual value.

We have on hand an elegant variety of

FURS!

consisting of Fitch, French Cooney, Mink, &c., &c., with

MUFFS TO MATCH,

and which we offer

Twenty-Five Per Cent Lower

than any other establishment in this city, a fact fully admitted by all who have purchased of us. Our Furs are entirely new and warranted free from moths.

It is unnecessary for us to enumerate our stock.

Call, Examine and Judge for Yourselves.

We feel grateful for the extensive patronage bestowed on us and hope to merit its continuation.

Another Addition.

We have received, through H. E. Pattison of this city, who obtained them of C. P. Bradley, chief of police in Chicago, some of the confederate notes (or scrip) engraved for Hendricks, the particulars of whose arrest we have published. They ornament our "Secession Picture Gallery," and can be examined by our friends.

Secession Pills.

We have received from Mr. Wiard of New York, the inventor of the new rifled steel cannon, several of the shells used in his and other rifled guns, and a couple of cannister shot ready for use. Two of the shells are 42-pounders, and look like ugly customers to those who get in the way of them when sent whirling on their mission of death, and the cannisters would be any thing but pleasant companions in a hot fight. They were despoiled of their destructive propensities, and "dead-headed" to us by the Merchant's Despatch Company, to which and the donor our thanks are tendered.

BALL AT THE HYATT HOUSE.—The party at the Hyatt House to-night promises to be a large one, and the good news from Fort Donelson will add a peculiar zest to the festivities. A rare good time is anticipated.

JANESVILLE MEN IN CAIRO.—Milton H. Doty, of this city, in Capt. Britton's company, writing from Cairo, 12th inst., says: "We have had a good many visitors this week. I will mention some of them—the first one that come to see us was O. P. Martin, and since then the following individuals have been here—Archy McLean, Mat Bullock, John Maloy, and lastly, Jim Burgess, who arrived here this morning. He took us by surprise, as we had not 'arosen' yet. I think he has improved a great deal in looks, since I saw him last. He looks more fleshy and rugged, but he uses just as much tobacco as ever. He went up town this morning and bought a barrel of apples, and brought them down and presented them to the company. We gave him three cheers and a tiger. He took off his hat and said, 'I salute company G uncovered.' I think he will stay here a few days. He intended to go up the river to Fort Henry, but they wont let him. They don't propose to have any more Bull Run arrangements. The citizens will have to stay back and let the soldiers do the fighting this time."

☞ Lieut. Archy McLean, Matthew Bullock and John Maloy, of this city, belong to the 57th Illinois regiment; and O. P. Martin, a printer, formerly of this city, is sergeant major of the 8th Illinois. They were, probably, all in the battle at Fort Donelson.

HORSE SHOW IN CHICAGO.—A "World's Horse Fair" will be held in Chicago, commencing on the 2d of September next, and continuing two weeks. The fair is open to all nations for competition, and it is intended to make it the largest collection of horses ever exhibited in America. Twenty-five thousand dollars in premiums will be given. There will be a $1,000 premium for the best trotter, and probably the same for the fastest four-mile running horse; a $500 premium for the best lady rider, with equestrian exhibitions every day; also a series of elk races. Stock, farm and road horses will receive over one-third of the premiums, which are the largest ever given. The officers are:

President—Hon. F. C. Sherman, Chicago.
Vice-President—Geo. Wilkes; New York.
General Sup't—J. Milton Smith, Chicago.
Secretary—W. P. Isham, Chicago.

E. H. Bennett, of this city, has been appointed one of the marshals.

From the Thirteenth Regiment.

The following is an extract from a private letter, written by Capt. P. Norcross, of the thirteenth Wisconsin regiment, dated Shawneetown, Kansas, Feb. 9:

"Last Friday morning, Feb. 6th, the 13th Wisconsin regiment took up the line of march for Fort Scott, distant from Fort Leavenworth about 135 miles, and this evening finds me in this town with my company, quartered in what used to be a lager beer saloon. As good luck would have it, I found a good place for myself, Dr. Evans, Wallihan, and young Burgess, in the best house of this Indian town.

Shawneetown is a great town and great are the people thereof—a few civilized whites, a few Indians, and a few half-breeds. Law is not respected here. A man who has lived here for four years, told me that he had known of four murders, since he came here, and that none of the offenders had been arrested.

The Shawnees and Delawares are quite near here. For Indians they are quite civilized. They have good houses, fair schools, and most of the children are tolerably educated.

We have, so far, had a very tedious march. The roads are covered with ice, the weather is so cold that the water in our canteens freezes, as also does the meat in our haversacks.

One poor fellow, Burlingame, by name, froze his feet so badly that he will probably lose one of them. He was foolish enough to ride on a baggage wagon. There is a good road in advance of us—so the citizens say. I hope so.

There is considerable poetry in this kind of marching, after all its fatigues and hardships. In the morning, when the boys all feel happy, they sing songs and tell stories from one end of the regiment to the other. The woods, in some of the localities, are really grand. It just begins to seem as if we were out of the world—the civilized portion of it I mean."

SHAWNEETOWN, Kansas, Feb. 9.
On the road to Fort Scott.

Friday morning at 10 o'clock we left the city of Leavenworth, turning our backs on the comfortable quarters we had enjoyed there, and started on a long and wearisome march of over 130 miles due south, the longest trip any Wisconsin regiment has as yet made. The roads were covered with ice, and our marching was all sliding by the hardest, 15 miles without stopping to rest, and brought up at "Johnnycakes," the house of an Indian chief by that name. He is civilized, has a fine farm and good buildings. Two of the companies quartered in his barn, and many of the officers and sick in his house. However, I did not see any "johnnycake."

We heard stories of dire accidents to the baggage train, which was miles behind; of wagons upset, knapsacks spilled, &c. We built a fire and sat shivering around it, listening for the distant rumble of wheels to tell us that our knapsacks were coming. We had been so fortunate as to have all the knapsacks loaded on wagons, being spared the infliction of carrying them.

At last they came, and wrapping our blankets around us, and laying with our faces towards the fire, we passed a miserable night. Some of us were so fortunate as to have an old bee house open on all four sides, but with a roof, and considered ourselves very lucky indeed to have that much of a shelter.

In the morning we took up our line of march; traveled six miles and brought up on the banks of the Kan, (Indian name of Kansas) river. Here the regiment halted, companies "A" and "F," crossed the river, and we waited for the baggage train to come up. When it came a long rope was fastened to the wagons, half a hundred men would take hold and hold back, and one at a time the huge wagons were let down to the river. At the further shore was a steep bank, and just before reaching it the mules were whipped into a brisk trot, and with men running along at the side of the teams, whipping the animals at every step, the ascent would be made sometimes easily, and occasionally with a great deal of difficulty.

From the river we came on to this village, where we shall stay over Sunday. The boys will get a good rest, and will be in good marching condition when called on to start. It is hard work to march all day, sleep on the ground, get a hasty breakfast, and start off again with our joints stiff and limbs aching. Chivalry keeps many men from giving up. It goes against a man's pride to give up as "tired out," while his comrades are still "marching on" apparently fresh and unwearied. At Fort Scott I will write you again. Your soldier friend,

CLARENCE W. BAKER.

OPERA.—We are assured by those who witnessed the performance of the Holman Opera Troupe last evening, that it was well worth the time and money expended. They will give two more of their entertainments, at Lappin's Hall, before leaving our city. We trust our citizens will give them a good house to-night.

CERTIFICATES
as to the value of
The Jessup Seed Drill.

THE following certificates have been given by persons using the Jessup Seed Drill:

FULTON.

Mr. Soverhill:—I take pleasure in saying that the Jessup Drill which I purchased of you last spring operates to my entire satisfaction. The draft is light, it distributes the grain very evenly and accurately, and there is no possibility of its cracking the grain. I am acquainted with the operation of many different drills and can cheerfully recommend the Jessup as a superior one. Yours, JOB ALLEN.

Mr. Soverhill:—The Jessup Drill I purchased of you last spring operates as well as I could wish it to. I would cheerfully recommend it to any one in want of a drill. WM. SHORT.

Albion, Dane county.

Mr. Soverhill:—I hereby certify that the Jessup Grain Drill I purchased of you last spring works in the most satisfactory manner. I think it a good and durable machine, and worthy the patronage of every good farmer. It is a saving in seed and labor.

Cooksville, Nov. 25, 1861. H. STEBBINS.

I have examined many drills and am satisfied that the Jessup is the best. I used one last spring and like it much. It is very accurate and light draft.

Bradford, Dec. 27, 1861 WALTER STONE.

Mr. Soverhill:—We cordially assent to what Mr. Stebbins says about the Jessup Drill.

McKEY & BRO'S
JANUARY CIRCULAR
For 1862.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

To the People of

Janesville, Rock & adjoining Counties

McKey & Bro's
MAMMOTH STORE

and

READY FOR BUSINESS.

WE have now completed our new addition, making our store decidedly the largest business establishment west of New York city; size, 44 feet by 160, five stories high including basement. And in order to fill the same, we found it necessary in the early part of the season, to purchase ten times our usual amount of stock. Anticipating a still further advance on Foreign and Domestic goods, we made another extensive purchase immediately before the great and unprecedented advance which has taken place within the past two weeks. We have now in stock, at our different establishments, over $250,000 Worth of Merchandize!

Every single dollars worth of which was purchased before the advance, and in order to give our patrons a general benefit, we shall, for the

Next 20 Days, Sell at Retail Only,

the following goods at the prices mentioned, namely: Our entire stock of perfectly

FAST COLORED PRINTS

at 10 cents per yard. Let the people bear in mind that Prints have advanced in price 50 per cent; still we have concluded to close out the amount of our retail stock of Prints, being the very best brands in the market, at 10 Cents per Yard.

We have now on hand

10 Cases Madder Color Prints

suitable for bedding, which we will sell, for the next 20 days, at 16 yards for $1, worth this day in Chicago 10 cents per yard at wholesale. The above prices are for the retail trade exclusively.

5,000 Chenille Scarfs

at 12½ cents each

Just received, five cases of plain, solid color

DE LAINES!

which we offer, for the next 20 days, at prices even lower than prints, namely: 12 yards for $1. Just imagine,

Eight Pence per Yard for DeLaines.

3,000 pieces fancy figured DeLaines, nice small patterns, of the very best printing, which we offer for the next 20 days, at one shilling per yard, or eight yards for $1, the same price as prints.

We would ask attention to the following: our entire stock of splendid

Manchester and Pacific DeLaines,

sold to-day in New York City at 25 cents, we now offer, for the next 20 days, at 1 shilling 6 pence per yard, or 10 yards for $1,88, which is the retail price of prints in many cities of this state to-day.

OUR MILLINERY DEPARTMENT

is well filled with a select stock of

Ribbons, Flowers, Plumes, Trimmings, &c.,

and presents great inducements to customers.

We call particular attention to our

Dress Goods Department.

Having purchased in the early part of December 5,000 pieces of different styles of Dress Goods, at the great closing auction sales of the season, from Wilderming, Hogart & Humbert, William Topping & Co., Wilderming & Mount, Hagarty & Co., Rudrow, Jones & Co., and Lockwood Brothers, where no goods are sold but by the case, direct from the Importers. And having purchased exclusively for cash, enables us this day to offer to our customers some

as cheap as a common DeLaine, and in many cases as low as the present tariff prices. For instance, we now offer 100 pieces splendid Repps, ¾ yard wide at 2 shillings per yard, elegantly printed and of the most modern designs, and sold by us in the early part of the season at 50 cents per yard. We now offer, for the next 20 days, 100 pieces of double width Repps, sold by us last month at 65 cents per yard, now only 44 cents. All our

Mohairs, Poplins, French Merinos, Plain Repps

and many other styles at an equal reduction. Our stock of

CLOAKS AND SHAWLS

is now much larger than at any time previous this season, and in order to close them out we offer the entire stock at a

GREAT REDUCTION,

from 20 to 40 per cent from last week's prices.

We have recently fitted up a spacious

Carpet Room

the entire length of our store, and filled it to its utmost capacity with a splendid stock of

Carpets and Oil Cloths,

purchased before the great advance on Woolens and Cottons.

OUR STOCK OF CLOTHING

is large and varied, and also comprises Hats, Caps, Furnishing Goods, Buffalo Robes, Furs, &c., all purchased previously to the great advance—yet, for the purpose of closing out the entire stock, we now offer it at a Great Reduction.

Garments Made and Cut to Order.

Hoop Skirts!

We call the particular attention of the ladies to our unequaled stock of Hoop Skirts, comprising the Belle Trail, Four Cord Diamond Skirts which we now offer at

FOUR CENTS PER ROW.

Also, the new Wove Tape Skirts with sealed tabs and patent fastenings, which we had made to order in New York city, and are warranted never to

Get Out of Shape.

Also a large assortment of these much worn Balmoral Skirts, and very cheap.

IN CONCLUSION,

we beg leave to assure our customers that we will continue to do business upon the principle which has heretofore given such general satisfaction, and our store such wide-spread reputation. Make no purchases until you have paid a visit to our establishment, where you will find a greater variety, larger stock and

than any other store in this part of the world. Persons living at a distance, in the purchase of the small sum of five dollars, can make sufficient to pay the expense by coming to our store to trade, as from 25 to 50 per ct.

CAN BE SAVED

by purchasing at our house, in comparison to prices paid at country stores.

Fall and Winter Goods!

AT THE

RIORDAN & LEECH,

Main Street, Janesville.

OWING to the immense trade we have done since commencement in this city, (a trade which far exceeded our most sanguine expectations,) we have been enabled to add to our already well selected and extensive stock a still greater variety of

NEW AND DESIRABLE GOODS,

all of which have been purchased previous to the late advance, thereby giving us the advantage of merchants who have been obliged to pay a far higher rate for goods purchased within the past week or two; we shall therefore continue to sell at prices which are sure to give satisfaction, and which have given us the character of

The Cheapest Store in Janesville,

and which we are determined to maintain during our whole business career.

We call particular attention to our extensive variety of

DRESS GOODS,

comprising the latest styles in market: beautiful figured and plain Merinoes, all colors, Ottoman Repps, Silk Poplins, double width Broches, black and white check Valentias, Cordelinas, Coburgs, &c., &c., together with an elegant assortment of

of the very richest styles.

SHAWLS AND CLOAKS.

In this department we have always been able to boast of the best selection in town and have added all the

Different Styles Lately Manufactured,

thereby enabling us to offer the

to be found in any city of the west, not even excepting Chicago. Our stock of

Broche, Square and Long Shawls

are cheaper than ever before offered in this city, being the importation of Thirion Mallaird & Co. and purchased at auction at about one half their actual value.

We have on hand an elegant variety of

FURS!

consisting of Fitch, French Cooney, Mink, &c., &c., with

MUFFS TO MATCH,

and which we offer

Twenty-Five Per Cent Lower

than any other establishment in this city, a fact fully admitted by all who have purchased of us. Our Furs are entirely new and warranted free from moths.

It is unnecessary for us to enumerate our stock.

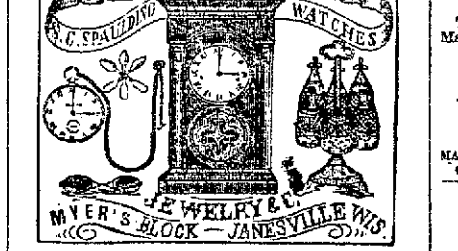

Call, Examine and Judge for Yourselves.

We feel grateful for the extensive patronage bestowed on us and hope to merit its continuation.

J. A. DENELL,

SUCCESSOR TO

A CHANCE.

THE subscriber having purchased the stock of goods formerly owned by S. C. Spaulding, takes this method of informing the citizens of Janesville and the country generally that he will keep a full assortment of

Watches, Clocks, Jewelry,
SILVER WARE, PLATED WARE,
Spectacles, &c., &c., at the old stand, corner of Myers' New Block, where he will be pleased to meet any and all of the former patrons and as many new ones as may honor him with a call. He pledges them he will give them better bargains than can be had in the city or state.

Having had several years experience as a practical

WATCH REPAIRER,

Cephalic Pills

CURE Sick Headache!

CURE Nervous Headache

CURE All kinds of Headache.

By the use of these pills the periodic attacks of Nervous or Sick Headache may be prevented; and if taken at the commencement of an attack immediate relief from pain and sickness will be obtained.

They seldom fail in removing Nausea and Headache to which females are so subject.

They act gently upon the bowels,—removing Costiveness.

For Literary Men, Students, delicate females, and all persons of sedentary habits, they are valuable as a Laxative, improving the appetite, giving tone and vigor to the digestive organs, and restoring the natural elasticity and strength of the whole system.

The CEPHALIC PILLS are the result of long investigation and carefully conducted experiments, having been in use many years, during which time they have prevented and relieved a vast amount of pain and suffering from headache, whether originating in the nervous system or from a deranged state of the stomach.

They are entirely vegetable in their composition, and may be taken at all times with perfect safety without making any change of diet, and the absence of any disagreeable taste renders it easy to administer them to children.

The only Correct and Complete

HISTORY OF THE WAR.

THE SOUTHERN REBELLION

and the

WAR FOR THE UNION:

A History of the

Rise and Progress of the Rebellion,

and

Consecutive Narrative of Events and Incidents, from the First Stages of the Treason Against the Republic down to the Close of the Conflict,

TOGETHER WITH IMPORTANT DOCUMENTS AND EXTRACTS FROM REMARKABLE SPEECHES.

In Weekly Parts, 32 pages, large 8vo, Price 10 Cents.

THE want of an authentic and thorough History of the Rebellion, for present reference and future preservation, is the subject of general remark. No work of that nature has yet been offered to the public, and all who wish for information are compelled to grope through the mazes of the rumors, reports, dispatches, letters and editorials of the daily newspapers, to precipitate, from its confused columns, the great facts and incidents of the struggle for the Union.

To meet this want, and to produce a work of permanent value as well as of present interest, the publisher has arranged for the issue of the history as above set forth—in a form and at a price which shall render it acceptable to all.

This history will tell the STORY AS IT IS, giving a clear, consecutive narrative of the entire movement, including all the incidents and events in their exact order, and containing the important documents and extracts from remarkable speeches. It will not be a mere diary, nor a mere enumeration of dry and naked dates, nor a compilation of slips from newspapers, but will portray in connected and interesting narrative, the revolutionary steps, as well as the measures of the government.

It will carefully digest all evidence—will sift all rumors and reports—will fix upon facts, and correct so far as possible the errors and discrepancies incident to the hasty narratives of the newspapers.

It will be written in a style suited to its theme—at once graphic, earnest and luminous, introducing such personal and social incidents as may serve to show the relations of individuals and communities to the grand events of the time.

It is true, everybody reads the newspapers, but the reports of the newspapers are the fragmentary and contradictory children of the moment, and not a correct, connected and complete history. The above publication, afterwards bound in a handsome volume, will be a book for the family, which will be valued like the records of the War of Independence, or the Life of Washington, and worthy to be kept for children and grand-children, as a memorial of the present time.

It will thus prove desirable, available and satisfactory to every citizen, every family, every office, every library: and is given to the public in the full assurance that it will command the approbation of every patriot, every Union man, every good citizen in our still Glorious Land.

Cephalic Pills
CURE
Sick Headache,
CURE
Nervous Headache
CURE
All kinds of Headache.

By the use of these pills the periodic attacks of Nervous or Sick Headache may be prevented; and if taken at the commencement of an attack immediate relief from pain and sickness will be obtained.

They seldom fail in removing Nausea and Headache to which females are so subject.

They act gently upon the bowels,—removing Costiveness.

For Literary Men, Students, delicate females, and all persons of sedentary habits, they are valuable as a Laxative, improving the appetite, giving tone and vigor to the digestive organs, and restoring the natural elasticity and strength of the whole system.

The CEPHALIC PILLS are the result of long investigation and carefully conducted experiments, having been in use many years, during which time they have prevented and relieved a vast amount of pain and suffering from headache, whether originating in the nervous system or from a deranged state of the stomach.

They are entirely vegetable in their composition, and may be taken at all times with perfect safety without making any change of diet, and the absence of any disagreeable taste renders it easy to administer them to children.

HISTORY OF THE WAR.

THE SOUTHERN REBELLION

and the

WAR FOR THE UNION:

A History of the

Rise and Progress of the Rebellion,

and

Consecutive Narrative of Events and Incidents, from the First Stages of the Treason Against the Republic down to the Close of the Conflict,

TOGETHER WITH IMPORTANT DOCUMENTS AND EXTRACTS FROM REMARKABLE SPEECHES.

In Weekly Parts, 32 pages, large 8vo, Price 10 Cents.

THE want of an authentic and thorough History of the Rebellion, for present reference and future preservation, is the subject of general remark. No work of that nature has yet been offered to the public, and all who wish for information are compelled to grope through the mazes of the rumors, reports, dispatches, letters and editorials of the daily newspapers, to precipitate, from its confused columns, the great facts and incidents of the struggle for the Union.

To meet this want, and to produce a work of permanent value as well as of present interest, the publisher has arranged for the issue of the history as above set forth—in a form and at a price which shall render it acceptable to all.

This history will tell the STORY AS IT IS, giving a clear, consecutive narrative of the entire movement, including all the incidents and events in their exact order, and containing the important documents and extracts from remarkable speeches. It will not be a mere diary, nor a mere enumeration of dry and naked dates, nor a compilation of slips from newspapers, but will portray in connected and interesting narrative, the revolutionary steps, as well as the measures of the government.

It will carefully digest all evidence—will sift all rumors and reports—will fix upon facts, and correct so far as possible the errors and discrepancies incident to the hasty narratives of the newspapers.

It will be written in a style suited to its theme—at once graphic, earnest and luminous, introducing such personal and social incidents as may serve to show the relations of individuals and communities to the grand events of the time.

It is true, everybody reads the newspapers, but the reports of the newspapers are the fragmentary and contradictory children of the moment, and not a correct, connected and complete history. The above publication, afterwards bound in a handsome volume, will be a book for the family, which will be valued like the records of the War of Independence, or the Life of Washington, and worthy to be kept for children and grand-children, as a memorial of the present time.

It will thus prove desirable, available and satisfactory to every citizen, every family, every office, every library: and is given to the public in the full assurance that it will command the approbation of every patriot, every Union man, every good citizen in our still Glorious Land.
